The Blue Ridge Post will be issued by a new company this week.

An Atlanta lady has made charges against her son for vagrancy.

The North Georgia Conference meets in Newnan on the 21st of November.

The Georgia state quarantine has been removed and people can come and go now at pleasure.

Neither Hoke Smith nor Clarke Howell would agree to meet Judge Russell in Atlanta on the 1st inst., to talk politics.

Dr. West has bought out Dr. Shaw at Dawsonville and the latter gentleman is preparing to move to South Georgia right away.

Bro. Perry, of the Cherokee advance, is getting out a good paper now, one which the citizens of that county should feel proud of, and no doubt do.

The newspaper men, who visited Atlanta to see the president were about all who failed to get their pockets picked, because they had nothing to lose.

President Roosevelt has returned to Washington City from his trip to the south. The president made a good impression among the southern people while on his trip.

E. A. Moore, a drunken conductor on an electric line in Savannah, shot at a man on the car and the bullet struck and killed Mrs. Lella Wheeler, as she sat on the steps of her home, the other day.

Parties in Dahlonega from Dawson county this week, stated that Ethel Minney, the girl accused of helping to kill her infant in that county a short time ago, had been put in jail, and Jim Gooch has left out.

M. M. Linch, of Habersham county, is no more. He went out into the woods the other day, climbed a tree and with one end of a rope to his neck and the other to a limb, swung off 70 feet from the ground.

It is said that Shippen Bro. Lumber Co., contemplate putting in a pulp mill at Ellijay in the near future for the purpose of manufacturing paper from the waste products of the forests, which have heretofore been a dead loss.

The good price for cotton has caused many of the farmers to wish now that they had increased instead of decreased the acreage this year. Several in Lumpkin county acted wisely in the matter and put in all the ground in cotton they could.

Gen. A. J. Warner, in a petition to the U. S. court, alleges that he does not think that he can get a fair and impartial trial in Hall county and asks that his cases pending there be removed. The argument will be had on the 27th of November.

Mrs. Alice Moore was attacked by a negro man and criminally assaulted near Brookwood, close to Atlanta, the other day in broad open day light while she was in a turnip patch. He slipped up behind her, knocked her down and committed the horrible deed and then escaped.

The trade issue of the Anniston (Ala.) Hot Blast last week was a beauty, containing forty pages of interesting reading matter, telling all about the prominent people and public and private enterprises of that prosperous city. In 1880 the place contained only 400 persons. Now it has a population of 18,000 souls.

Mining Notes.

Since the departure of Mr. Wharton Anstrom Mr. Eldridge is in charge of the Calhoun mine. The twenty stamp mill at the Singleton has been running both day and night for some time. Mr. Bryanna has every thing in splendid shape and gives the mine his personal attention every day.

Mr. Tompkins is making things move right along down at the chlorination plant. The roasting has been completed and the chlorination has been going on for several days, with the expectation of good results.

Mr. Rogers put hands enough on his canal to get the water on his Battle Branch property within a few weeks. This is the kind of vim and energy it takes to successfully work a gold mine as well as to perform any other kind of business.

Mr. Crisson still continues his mining operations up on his property near town, but says he will soon close down till spring as he does not care to run the mine during the winter. He has to buy water and says that it would be too much trouble and expense to undertake it. If he owned the water it would be different.

Messrs. Sovey & Buell have already purchased the machinery for the purpose of beginning operation on the Mountain Valley Mining Company's property. We wish them success. We are anxious to see work commence on the Castleberry so it will begin giving up its rich values.

We are glad to state that the valuable gold vein discovered recently by Mr. Wash Jenkins, on the Findley mining property, is not only holding out in value but increases in size. It is now from four to five feet thick and its width is not known yet. At the width of twelve feet neither side of the vein has been reached.

On account of a breakage in the pump of the Bunker Hill dredge work has been suspended by it for several days, but likely before this month the eyes of our readers the repairs will be made and the boat in operation again. Just before the accident they struck the best place found in the river by them yet and were dipping up some fine nuggets when the pump broke. The manager of the Bunker Hill does not cross his hands behind him, and is content with what has been discovered on the property, but eats no idle bread and moves right along with his development work, resulting in more discoveries that are good.

Moose & McDonald are moving right along with their placer diggings at the Columbia. The operations heretofore were profitable with but little water, being unable to get in hardly half time, and now since getting ample water from the Hand canal the results will be much larger. Their water and other expenses are pretty heavy. The mine has to be rich to pay those working under a lease.

At the recent clean up from the old Singleton mill site more than eighty pennyweights of gold were made, giving some idea of the amount of gold that is lost by the stamp mills in these diggings, although managed by the best of miners, showing that some kind of a process for saving it is badly needed. And from what those who have seen the Copper gold saving machine tested say it will fill a long felt want in this section.

Now in reply to the question about the Dahlonega Gold Mining and Milling Co. or Briar Patch Co., we will say that nothing but the lift and the dredge boat is in operation on the Briar Patch property. More water is needed. Work was started on a canal many months ago which will supply a small amount of water if ever completed. Mr. Fry is in charge of the canal work with a small force of hands, which could have been completed before now had he been authorized to hire a sufficient number of hands to do the work, his services would have cost no

The Jar of Coughing

Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest rock. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the coughing, and heals the torn membranes.

"I always keep Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. It gives perfect relief whenever any of us have coughs or sore throats. I have used it for a great many years and can know all about it."—MRS. MARY ORRICK, New York, N. Y.

more to work a large force than a small one. This plan of operation we are not able to explain. The tabling, which cost $700 has been completed and all paid for except about $200. As to our acquaintance with the officers it is short, as they reside in Chicago, and the general manager does not stay at the mine but two or three days at a time, and that not often. There is a vice but no president. The property is valuable but will have to be given more attention before it pays any dividends. This is our honest opinion. Not long ago the company contracted for the Calhoun property, making one payment. There is a big dam and a stamp mill on this property, but nothing has been going on there except the placer work, which has always paid well. Some twelve or fourteen gentlemen were down looking at both properties last week, all of whom we understand are pleased with the outlook as is usually the case with those who visit it, but if any one was to return who had visited these mines a year or two ago, would no doubt wonder why at least some of the company's plans spoken of then had not been carried out during this lengthy period. Why the officers do not answer stockholders letters we cannot say.

The Mayor's Race.

Not being satisfied with the peaceable and quiet manner in which Dahlonega politics are moving, two citizens started out first of the week to see if they couldn't get some one to run against us for mayor, like the fellow holding the light for his wife to kill the bear. They didn't desire to undertake to kill it themselves but wanted the other fellow to go in front. Both have been mayors of the town, having received our support, but now they don't wish to be governed by the Golden Rule. Nor willing for a country editor to share any kind of honors, but when it comes to any contributions for a church or any public good that we undertake to accomplish either for the town or county, we never fail to receive words of cheer from them. We did hope that there would be no renewing of strife nor discord here in this race, but if nothing else will do we will take hold of the singletree and keep even if we can.

APPLICATION OF AMENDMENT TO CHARTER.

Georgia, Lumpkin County.

To the Superior Court of said County.

The petition of the Southern Power and Milling Company, respectfully represented.

That on the 14th day of July, 1905, your Honorable Court granted a charter to said Southern Power and Milling Company, and that said Company has been duly organized under said charter.

2. Said Company petitions that your Honorable Court will amend said charter as follows: That paragraph 8th of said charter shall be amended so as to read as follows: (8) They desire as such corporation to have the right to sue and be sued to have and use a common seal; to constitute and elect a Board of Directors consisting of not less than five nor more than nine members; as may be fixed by the By-Laws, to manage the affairs of the corporation, and the same to alter and amend from time to time as the needs of the corporation may require; and to elect such officers as it may deem necessary and usual; and they desire all such general powers and privileges as may be conferred upon and are incidental to corporations of said state of Georgia which under the laws of said state are chartered by the Superior Courts.

Wherefore your petitioners pray your Honorable Court that the foregoing Amendment to said charter be granted and allowed conferring upon said corporation the rights and powers therein set forth and that they will like force and effect as if so set forth in the original petition upon which said charter was duly granted.

PURVIS & CHAFFERS,

Attorneys for Petitioners.

Georgia, Lumpkin County.

J. L. Cook, Clerk of the Superior Court of said county, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the records on file in this office. Witness my hand and official signature, this Nov. 1, 1905.

D. L. COOK, C. S. C.

At Bainbridge last Sunday a negro named Gus Gaudman, shot and killed a negro woman, and afterwards when an effort was being made by the sheriff to arrest the negro, the officer was shot by him, from the effects of which he died in a short time. Then after dark a mob of about 300 persons took him from the jail and killed his body with bullets. How many persons are there who will say this negro didn't meet his just reward?

Last week, down at Gainesville, Judge Kimsey fined a man ten dollars for killing another person. It happened last Christmas, when a little town in Hall county had just been incorporated. After the calaboose was finished and the marshal elected, some parties came in to paint the town red, or in other words try the marshal. In his effort to make an arrest he shot a man and got shot, the ball passing entirely through his body. At the trial the marshal was found guilty by the jury for involuntary manslaughter, by not using due caution in the discharge of his duties. The other parties were tried for riot and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. So the Judge being displeased with the verdict fined the marshal only ten dollars, remarking that some jurors would have acquitted him.

It seems now that Judge Russell, also candidate for governor, is going to make it interesting for Hoke Smith. The Judge can talk some ten.

Local News.

Mr. W. E. Ricketts has gone down to Norcross to work.

The cool weather has caused Dahlonega to have three meat markets.

Mrs. Jones, of Boston, Mass., is here on a visit to her relatives, Prof. and Mrs. Ferguson.

Mr. T. J. Smith, of Dahlonega, enjoyed his last mess of roasting ears for the season last Sunday at noon.

Although the crops are not as good as last year, all of our farmers have made plenty to do them, and some of them will have farm products to spare.

Mr. T. J. Smith will commence enlarging the old Signal office, near his residence, so as to have it ready to receive his merchandise by the first of January.

After an absence of several weeks from Dahlonega, Mr. L. C. VanVleck returned last Friday afternoon, right side up with care, looking as gay as a pea fowl.

Mr. S. W. Vansyckle, of Newark, N. J., came in last Saturday and took a peep at some of the mining property near Dahlonega, apparently well pleased with what he saw.

Sheriff Davis went down into Dawson county and arrested Dave Hix, who is wanted in Lumpkin for misdemeanor, in accordance with a bill returned by the last grand jury.

A few years ago the editor of the Signal said that THE NUGGET was located "over on Tad Pole branch with a short-tail full of type." Now the Signal is located at the head of this branch.

You will find us ready to do your job work at a moment's notice. We also keep a large assortment of blanks at this office, and if we do not have what you want we can soon turn them out for you.

Col. R. H. Raker, with his small cannery factory here as an experiment, put up over eleven hundred cans of blackberry, peaches and beans during the season, which are being sold to our merchants here as cheap as such goods can be bought in any market. The business will pay, besides it keeps all the money at home. Next year the Colonel will work on a larger scale.

Among the things recently found at the place where the two Jackson county citizens drove off of a bank down near Yahoola bridge the other night, was a kitten and a bottle, both in one sack. One of those men has a female lover near Dahlonega and it is supposed that she presented him with the kitten so he could look at it and think of her when many miles away. Oh, how sweet!

There are now three parties confined in jail for breaking into Mr. W. J. Bart's store at night on the first of last month. Their names are Miligan Mote, Sandy Mote and Taylor Mote, all brothers, sons of Mr. Enoch Mote, who resides out near Bartsboro, where the store was robbed. The building was entered through a window in the gable and while Mr. Bart was away and shoes and several other articles, were taken. The youngest is about sixteen and the eldest twenty-one. Mr. Bart kept the matter a secret from the public until he got sufficient proof to convict, then he sent for Sheriff Davis, when they were arrested, tried and bound over last Friday and placed in jail. After the arrest they said that James Luckey, of Hall county, who was in that settlement about the time, was also guilty, who persuaded them into the trouble. The sheriff went out last Saturday with the intention of arresting Luckey, but found where he stayed all night at the date of the stealing, and being satisfied that he had nothing to do with it, returned home without molesting the man.

Mr. Frank Rider and Miss Maud Johnson, daughter of Mr. Henry Johnson, of this county, were married last Sunday by Rev. J. L. Wehnt.

Mr. Joe and James McDonald, sons of Mr. Anderson McDonald, who used to reside in Lumpkin county, now deceased, were up from Pendergrass, Ga., this week visiting their relatives here, accompanied by Mr. Joe McDonald's two daughters, Miss Dorie and Miss Mamie. We are glad to learn that these gentlemen are doing well in Jackson and making a lot of money.

The first football game of the season down at Gainesville, was played last Monday between the N. G. A. College, boys of Dahlonega, and the Georgia Military Academy at Chattahoochee Park, resulting in the Dahlonega team defeating the other by 50 to 0. Our boys did well and receive the praises of all who witnessed the game. As soon as the phone told the news here the rest of the school boys made the town lively with their college yell.

That pretty young girl who came in to Dahlonega this week to see her lover was very much disappointed when she learned that he was out of town. She went from store to store and peeped in almost every nook and corner before she ascertained that her trip was fruitless. It is a little strange that young girls sometimes fall in love with married men, where there are so many single young men waiting to marry. This girl ought to change her ways before it is too late.

A gentleman has been here this week having an eye to getting some parties to build a railroad to Dahlonega. Some time ago these parties were ready to buy and complete the Gainesville & Dahlonega railroad, but the company didn't want to sell then. Whether he can get his men interested in this same line again he does not know, but has an eye on the route from here to Roswell, Ga. If the Gainesville & Dahlonega road cannot be gotten satisfactorily there is no better opening for a railroad any where than from Roswell to Dahlonega. It would pass through a good farming and mineral country and would pay well.

On Wednesday night quite a large number of citizens were present at the college to witness the delivery of the Southern Cross of Honor to several of the old Confederate soldiers by Mrs. Mattie Gaillard, President of the Gas-Bay Chapter Daughters of Confederacy, which was very interesting. Col. W. P. Price, Capt. J. W. Woodward, Capt. W. J. Worley and Rev. J. E. Blackburn in response showed by their words and acts the appreciation all the veterans had for this kind remembrance on the part of the ladies, and during their talks told many interesting occurrences during the war.

The first singing convention of Lumpkin county convened at Jones' Chapel last Sunday. Although the weather was a little chilly a large crowd was on hand from various parts of the county, including many singers, who had nothing to interfere with their enjoyment during the entire day except one party who was said to be too full of corn juice to carry a tune well. Nevertheless the singing went on. Classes were present from Yahoola, Dahlonega, Auraria, Bethlehem, Oak Grove, Mt. Gilard and Mt. Pisgah. The classes were consolidated so as to have three in the contest for the prize, and such splendid old time music has not been heard for years. All did well, but Yahoola and Mt. Pisgah won the prize of a dozen books for the best singing. All present enjoyed themselves very much, and it was so interesting that a permanent organization was perfected by electing J. A. Anderson, chairman, and Joseph Ricketts, secretary, and fixing the next date for the convention at Yahoola church on the fourth Sunday in May.

Chickens are high and scarce. When one is hatched now it soon goes into the hawk's claws or the man's pot.

The remains of Mrs. Jack Trammel were brought back from the Marble works, in Pickens county, last week and buried in Lumpkin county.

Several of our farmers who never raised any cotton so far, have decided to do so next year, and we may look for a big increase in the acreage of cotton in this county next year.

WANTED.—To buy timber and timber lands near the Etowah river and its tributaries, in Lumpkin county.

O. J. LILLY, Attorney,
Oct 27 6t Dahlonega, Ga.

THE NUGGET's editor does not carry any piece of a pasteboard in his pocket from a Printer's Union, or from any other organization, but turns the job work out all right to perfection. We prefer the job work to any kind of a card.

Merchant McDonald is supplying all about Porter Springs with a derby to wear. Mart Duckett has got one too and when he went to church the other day some of his most intimate friends thought that he was a Jew and had goods to peddle.

Recently while a certain gentleman of this county served on the jury here his wife kept the wagon on the road, hauling produce to Gainesville, doing her own hauling. No more industries ladies live on earth than those up here in the mountains.

Mr. M. J. Williams made sixty bushels of sweet potatoes on less than a half acre of ground this year, some of them weighing three pounds, worth 40 cents per bushel now, and yet some people say that farming won't pay. There is no trouble if we had a railroad.

Some more Hall county people passed through Dahlonega last week on their return from across the Blue Ridge, where they had been in search of apples, chestnuts, cabbage and other produce, taking more than a week to make the trip. If we had a railroad to Dahlonega all these things could be hauled by steam.

Last week Col. W. P. Price, of Dahlonega, made Mr. Bill Woody a deed to a lot of land in this county, which read as follows: "In consideration of friendship and one turkey gobler, to be delivered to me some time in the future, I convey," &c. The deed was properly witnessed and Mr. Woody says that it will not be long before he will deliver the gobler to the Colonel.

It is reported that one juror on a certain case at the last term of Lumpkin Superior court, said that they could have made up their verdict right away in the case they were out on, but by remaining over the talis jurors got more money for their services, in other words pay for another day. We hope this is not the case, and trust that there was no juror who loved $1.50 well enough to run the county to fifty or sixty dollars useless expense, for every one should transact the business of the county in as economical manner as if it was a private matter.

Mr. J. B. Brooksher, who resides a short distance from Dahlonega, found a hole dug in his field one day last week which he can't understand. The tracks showed that it had been the work of two men a few night previous, judging from the barking of his dog. When he found it, the dirt had been thrown up like a grave. He and Lewis Price took out the dirt to see what it meant. The hole was about five feet long, three wide and two deep. They couldn't have been searching for gold, for there is no sign of a vein there, and had it been anything hid, Mr. Brooksher said they could have dug it up during the day. The parties used a shovel and made dock, taking up one stamp, but what it was done for will doubtless always be a mystery.

One of the girls attending the public school here knits at recess while the rest of the pupils play. And what is still better she always has good lessons.

That person, who has been stealing Mr. Tom Smith's wood has kept it up so long that he is getting sorry for them, who, one of these nights will be there when a visit is made to see that the carrier is not overloaded.

In reply to the inquiry, "Why it is that but few old soldiers outside of Dahlonega are given the Cross of Honor," we do not know. It's true that there are as good Confederate soldiers residing in Auraria and other parts of the county as ever fought in the confederacy, but we take it for granted that they will receive attention later on.

Harrison Winkler was caught in an illicit distillery in White county last week by officers Grizzle and Crockett, and brought down and bound over by Judge Baker. Winkler is the man who came near killing John Nix, of that county, some months ago, and no doubt has made many gallons of liquor while hiding out from the county sheriff. The officers destroyed three stills while on this trip.

Capt. Williams spares no time in learning the college boys the duties of a soldier boy, and last but not least, teaches them how to act so as grow up orderly and manly. He does not only have them to go to church but gives them strict orders how to act when there, and in going and coming, and attends himself and sees that all orders are carried out. Notwithstanding the Captains strict discipline the students all like him.

At the trial of little Charlie Davis in Auraria district last week, before Squire Martin, charged with an assault with intent to rape Mrs. Woody, a widow woman, a large number of witnesses and spectators were present. Col. O. J. Lilly representing the defendant. Several witnesses swore that they would not believe the woman on her oath, and the squire not believing all of her testimony, bound the boy over to Lumpkin Superior court in a hundred dollar bond for an assault only, so it can be passed upon by 23 grand jurors.

If we had a railroad to Dahlonega it would not require costly dams to get the timber floated out of this county to market. And as it is much of it is too far away from streams big enough to carry the timber to the point desired. There are men of means ready to build a railroad to this place right away provided reasonable terms can be made with the parties controlling the Gainesville & Dahlonega route. Let no time be wasted. If this cannot be secured build the line from Roswell, Ga., a larger and more practical route than the one started from Gainesville. The people of Gainesville don't seem to care to neighbor with us, for fear the road might injure that place. The citizens of Roswell or Atlanta desire to extend the right hand of fellowship to the people of Dahlonega.

Mr. Wharton Anderson left last Monday to seek his fortune in Gold Field, Nevada, to the regret of all of his many friends in this section. They like to know of him doing well but dislike to lose his citizenship, for he is a gentleman in every respect. Mr. Anderson has been a citizen here for the past seven years, in charge of the Calhoun mine the whole time. He gave his business the closest attention, worked the mine economically and never failed to make it pay, either before or after it changed hands. The owners of the Calhoun wanted him to remain but he had been contemplating this trip for quite awhile and could not well get his consent to stay, although he likes the people here and hated the separation, which will be the last time, likely, that he will see any of them again. He has our best wishes.

The Stone Mountain team has backed out playing with the Dahlonega boys.

Mr. Ben Smith returned this week from Jackson and Gwinnett counties, where he had been on business.

Dr. M. N. Stow, of Dawsonville, who is arranging to move to South Georgia, was in Dahlonega on a visit first of the week.

The name of Mr. W. J. Hightower is mentioned in this issue for alderman. He has a good eye for business and would make a good member.

The hunting season was opened last Wednesday and now the "possums and partridges will stand but little chance to escape from the hunter and his dogs.

Sheriff Davis went down to Dawsonville on Wednesday after Gordon Hyde, who was arrested on a warrant from Lumpkin county charging him with misdemeanor.

We print mining and milling reports, which show those having gold dug, exactly what has been going on every day. There is nothing more convenient. Send us an order.

Mr. J. E. McGee purchased Mr. Joe Ash's farm up at the foot of the Blue Ridge this week so Joe can go down the country and raise cotton, as he has found that making blockade liquor won't do.

Last week we printed two thousand envelopes for the Southern Power & Milling Co., to be used in Dahlonega, which shows that this company expects to do much corresponding and means business.

Mr. W. B. Gurley has moved from the first ward to the third, leaving a vacancy in the present board of aldermen, which will likely be filled by the city council at its next meeting on Monday night.

Deputy Marshal Grizzle went up into White this week and captured three men, two Alexanders and another person whose name we did not catch. Also destroyed a big still. On account of the absence of Judge Baker, who was in Macon attending the Grand Lodge of Masons, the prisoners were carried down to Gainesville for a commitment trial.

Although it was reported here that Dan Corn, who killed his brother, Kater, in Lumpkin county a few years ago while hauling a barrel of liquor, died in Arkansas not long since, it is said that he came back and carried his family away last Sunday. Dan was under bond here, and a short while after it was reported that he was dead an affidavit, witnessed by a supposed officer to the effect that he had died out there, was produced in Lumpkin Superior court, so as to relieve his bondsmen.

A postoffice inspector has been here this week investigating different matters. He first inspected the postoffice and found that everything checked up all right. A report that some mail had been put in the wrong box reached him. The dispute over the republican chairmanship between Mr. Asbury and Mr. Ben Anderson, was the cause on account of Postmaster Tate giving all the official mail to Mr. Anderson, but we judge this matter will have to be settled by some one else. Miss Bessie Asbury, daughter of Mr. Asbury, is an applicant for the postoffice here, and so is Mr. Anderson, and each one desires to show that he has been lending a helping hand to republicanism and wants something for his services in return, either directly or indirectly. Otherwise we have no idea that there would have been a bit of trouble. Three parties in Dahlonega had been discovered in sending written matter through the mails for less postage than the law requires. The inspector collected ten dollars out of each party for it. We warned our readers about doing this a few months ago. Take heed by believing what you see in THE NUGGET, and thus save your money. The inspector went on about Stay for similar business.

Half Way Dots.

The Half Way Reading Club held its weekly meeting last Saturday night. There was a large crowd present and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves very much. The Club will have a cross spelling next Saturday night. Everybody invited.

Mr. Jack Elrod and his pretty sister, Miss Mary, of Gainesville, accompanied by Misses Eva and Belle Gillispie, of Murrayville, were the guests of the Miss Stringers Sunday.

Mr. Kaiser Meaders, of White county, was in our midst on a courting expedition last Sunday.

Good old corn shuckings will soon be on hand. Hoarh for chicken and sweet "tater" pie! There is a fellow in Half Way who doesn't like for his girl to go with a cripple fellow (though he wouldn't have her to know it for anything.)

Messrs. Tom and Edgar Cavenader, two cadets of the N. G. A. College, were seen in Half Way Sunday p. m. We didn't know their business, but noticed that Tom wore a large bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Mr. Lee and Eugene Stringer are now at work in Gainesville. They are missed very much, especially by the Club members.

Mr. Colonel Pierce attended the spelling match at the school house last Saturday night, and he didn't forget to treat the girls on candy.

Mr. Frank O'Kelley and Mr. John Smith, two of Hall county's nicest young men, were in Half Way Sunday.

CAN YOU IMAGINE WHO? Nimblewill School.

After one of the most interesting terms in its history, Nimblewill school closed on the evening of the 25th of October, with a splendid exhibition. The exercises began at 5:30 o'clock and lasted near three hours, and were enjoyed by a large crowd of people, who were interested all the way through. It was the quietest time we ever witnessed on such an occasion. Every one seemed to lend a listening ear to all the exercises. It will be a night long remembered by those present.

Whatever effort there has been made toward the welfare of the school we can truly say, as Paul said, "None of these things move us," from what we think is right. We believe stronger today than ever before in the old saying, "Kites rise against and not with the wind," for our term of school just ended has been a successful one. One proof of that was demonstrated in the contest at Dahlonega, on the 2nd of September, when our school won the medal offered in the contest, over the other schools of the county. We feel that our success is due to the untiring efforts of our beloved teacher, Mr. Cochran, and the co-operation he so wisely managed to secure from the patrons.

We feel proud of our school. We are glad we hold the keys to the front door into Lumpkin county. We hope that ere a few more weeks shall have passed that our school doors will again be opened, and the gentle ring of our school bell will again call forth our children to the place which is so dear to them, where they may again taste of the sweets of knowledge.

Prof. Cochran thinks of going to other parts to teach through the winter, and then perhaps will cast his lot with the business world somewhere. We regret to lose him as he is a young man that any community might be proud to have with them, and we would gladly recommend to any place as a man of good morals and ability.

TRUSTEES OF NIMBLEWILL.

Mr. John Bivers, of Fannin county, was married Sunday last to Miss Cochran, a daughter of Mr. Jephtha Cochran, of Nimblewill district.

Randa items came too late.

What the World Wants.

Young men and women who stand erect and independent while others bow and fawn and cringe for place and power.

Men who do not believe that shrewdness, cunning and long-headedness are the best qualities for winning success.

Merchants who will not offer for sale "English woollens" manufactured in America mills, or "Irish linens" made in New York.

Lawyers who will not persuade clients to bring suits merely to squeeze a fee out of them, when they know very well that they have no chance of winning.—Locomotive Engineers' Journal.

Frenzied Finance.

This is indeed, a day of loose financiering. Mrs. Chadwick is able to borrow a million on a face as ugly as sin; a Wall street clerk takes out a third of a million just as a "practical joke;" an express employee of Pittsburg was able to walk off with more than one hundred thousand dollars and is only guilty of a misdemeanor; parties have obtained hundreds of thousands from the big insurance companies without giving receipt, note or due bill, and a Georgia bank cashier who appropriated all the deposits of his bank, amounting to more than the capital stock, could not be convicted.—Marietta Journal.

Verdict for Six Cents.

A judgment for 6 cents damages has been entered against the New York Evening World in favor of Samuel J. Corker, who sued for $10,000. In its issue of Aug. 12, 1901, the Evening World said that Corker had evicted a poor woman from a tenement house he owned because she could not pay her rent at the very hour when he demanded it. The woman and her baby spent the night in a park.

On the trial the World offered evidence to prove the truth of its story, but there was a trifling inaccuracy in one small detail, hence the six cent judgment, which does not carry costs.

Convulsion, Fits, then Epilepsy.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine has been so successful in curing these brain-wrecking diseases that there is every reason to believe that even the most hopeless cases can be benefited, if not fully restored.

We will be pleased to refer any one thus afflicted to many who now enjoy the blessing of health, after years of hopeless suffering.

"I have a son that had brain fever when two years old, followed by fits of the worst type, and was pronounced incurable. I spent hundreds of dollars for him, without relief. After about fifteen years he became so bad that we sent him to Longport, Ind. He was there nearly three years, but in constant dread to grow worse, so we brought him home July 10, 1905, in a wretched condition. He had lost his mind almost entirely. His family knew one of the family could not even find his bed. It was a day. We were glad to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. The first bottle was used, and we could see a change for the better. After a second bottle he was able to walk, and he has had but two very slight spells since. Last August, 1905, and then he was well. Now he can work and go anywhere. If any one wishes to ask further concerning this, they are at liberty to do so. S. J. BRINKLEY, Knoxville, Ind."

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

In Time of Peace.

In the first month of the Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted, and before it becomes settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

Will a Boy Forget Home.

The Bible says: "Raise a child up in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Some one says, the Bible surely does not mean what it says, as so many who have been raised amidst prayer and church and the best books and advice and with all that can be done, that same boy will, for a time go a stray. At first when he is young and innocent, then what mother says, is law, and it seems for a while there is no trouble in the way. That found mother prides herself that she has raised a perfect boy. It seems for a time that she has, but alas! he starts to school and gets with older children who know more of the world than he. He begins to think that his home training was too strict, and he begins to wonder in his mind why other boys have a better time than he. He begins to insist and debate the question with his parents, that they are to severe on him.

Now he begins to get in his teens and thinks he is almost a man. He wants to leave home and go where he can make money and spend it as he pleases. He insists that his parents give their consent but they beg and urge him to stay at home, that he is too young and that home is the place for him. He can see nothing but pleasure and happiness in the future for him.

The day is set for him to leave home, and he gets his little belongings together and starts out into this unfriendly world alone. We can see him as he bids farewell to mother and father and loved ones, and leaves the parental roof for the first time. We see that mother as she looks after him for the last time, and through her tears, breathes a prayer that she may sometime see him again. He is gone! The home is lonely. In a few days a letter comes and he is all right. For a time he thinks that the world is all that he expected; but after a time, things change. His luck was not as he had dreamed and life was not one continual bed of roses, but life was real. He begins to think of home and mother and the many comforts he had at home to which he was now a stranger in this far away land. He had seemed to forget his home training, but he was like the little shell from the sea. You take a shell from the sea for thousands of miles and put it to your ear, and it will sing of its home on the sea. So it is with the boy; he can go away from home and indulge in almost all of the sins of the day, and that training of his youth will not be forgotten. So, "raise up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."—Ex.

The center of attraction seemed to be at the Rev. Jim Higgins. ## GUESS WHO?

Mr. Epps, the chief engineer of the Gainesville Midland Railroad, was in Jefferson last week and reported satisfactory progress along the extension from Jefferson to Athens. The engineering corps is now putting down the "grade stakes" preparatory to receiving bids from the contractors for the grading of the new road from Jefferson to Athens. Within less than twelve months, it is confidently predicted by parties in a position to know, that the Athens extension will be completed.—Gainesville News.

Song of the Decanter.

There was an old decanter,
and its mouth was gaping wide;
the key wine had ebbed away and left its crystal side;
and the wind
went humming,
humming;
up and down the sides it flew and through the reed-like hollow neck
the wildest notes
it blew. I placed it in the window, where the blast was blowing free, and fancied that its pale mouth sang the queerest strains to me. "They tell me—pungy conquerors—the Plague has slain his ten, and War his hundred,
thousands of the best men;
but I?"—'twas thus the bottle spoke—
"but I have conquered more than all your famous conquerors, so feared and famed of yore. Then come, ye youths and maidens, come drink from out of my cup, the beverage that dulls the brain and burns
the spirit up; that puts to shame
the conquerors that slay their scores below for this deluged millions with the lava tide of war. Though in the tide of battle, the darkest waves of blood may roll; yet while I killed body, I have damned
the very soul. The cholera, the sword,
such ruin, never wrought, as I, in mirth or malice, on the innocent have brought. And still I breathe upon them, and then they shrink before my breath; and peer by peer by my millions tread. THE TERRIBLE
ROAD TO DEATH—
From a member of the Anti-Liquor League.

I would rather be the humblest among those who have given hope to the hopeless and happiness to the distressed, of my race than to live in history as a conqueror, with my hands stained with innocent blood. I would rather have my name written among those who have loved their fellowman than to wear the laurels that encircle the brow of the Iron Prince. I would rather sleep in some quiet church yard, unknown and unremembered save by those in whose hearts I have scattered seeds of kindness, and upon whose lips I have conjured smiles of joy, than to be confined in a sarcophagus of gold, with desolate homes as my monuments and widows and orphans as living witness of my glory.

There is a mighty stream whose waters are warm as a summer's day, which flows noiselessly as the sunshine through the turbulent waters of the ocean. It carries on its heaving current health and warmth and life to half the world. Its weaves for England a chaplet of verdure and flowers; it crowns green Erin with the shamrock and rose, and flings a mantle perpetual beauty on the vine-clad hills of France. Its soft isles linger around the Orkney Isles and makes them a cluster of sunny jewels in the midst of inhospitable seas, and still bearing in its bosom that kindly nature born of brighter climes, it breathes in mercy on shores that touch the frozen zone. It is the majestic Gulf Stream, the vehicle of the sun's life giving power. It is the smile of God upon the water which warms the seas, and makes the earth blossom like the rose.—But Taylor's Magazine.

THE SOUTH LEADS.

Our Mills Use More Raw Cotton Than Northern Mills Spin.

G. Gunby Jordan, President of the Eagle and Phoenix Cotton Mills in Columbus, says that the South is now spinning more cotton than the North.

The North has more spindles but the Southern mills have more modern machinery and turn out more work.

Mr. Jordan also states that the northern manufacturers are dissatisfied because the southern mills have lower railway rates to the West and can ship goods there on better terms than New England mills.

"Our rates now are as low or a little lower for all central and Western territory than those from the eastern mills," says Mr. Jordan. "In fact this is a great cause for complaint among the New England mills and the New York jobbers who have seen the products of the southern mills encroaching on territory that they would like to retain exclusively for themselves. Undoubtedly one of the first complaints that would be made if the Interstate Commerce Commission were given control over rates would be directed to destroying this alleged advantage of the Southern mills. Therefore, the proposed legislation, giving rate making power to this Commission or any similar body, contains a serious threat to the prosperity of cotton manufacturing in the South, for we could not continue to do business without favorable rates. The northern mills have other advantages which we do not possess. They are nearer to local markets such as New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore and they can obtain money at a lower rate of interest. A distance basis of rates might hurt them but it would destroy us, for we have no larger near market such as they have but must depend upon distant markets for our prosperity. These are abundant reasons in the minds of the thoughtful cotton mill men of the South for opposing anything that looks toward government rate-making."

Auraria Dots.

Ed. Nugget: I will try and write you a few items from here this week.

Mr. R. A. Tiner and Miss Maggie Kerns were wedded at the home of the bride last Sunday evening at 1 p. m., by Rev. T. L. Robinson. Only a few of the bride and groom's relatives were present. The bride is the daughter of M. L. Kerns, and the groom the son of John F. Tiner. May they have a long, happy and prosperous voyage through life.

The mining prospects for this winter are very bright for our section. Sovey and Buell are going right along with their preliminary work on the properties in their hands.

The Mountain Valley work is still under headway. At Battle Branch much activity is expected here at this mine soon. They are doing a little hydraulic work there at present with good results, we are told.

The farmers are all about done gathering.

John H. Summerour's place produced 6 bales of cotton. A. G. Davis about the same. Several other farmers raised cotton here this year. So you see we are "coming to the front."

Golia Dale and C. H. Summerour are going to Alabama the last of the week to dig coal.

Mr. Woody's son, Sewell, had a mule to run away with him Tuesday. They say his skull was broken by being thrown from the bug. We have not learned the particulars yet.

Much sickness prevails from colds here. A Subscriber.

You don't like those gray hairs, do you? And your husband certainly doesn't like them. Then why not try a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor? It restores color to gray hair every time. All the deep, rich color of early life. And it cures dandruff also.

"I certainly believe that Ayer's Hair Vigor is a splendid preparation for the hair and scalp, for I have used it more or less for six years. I can cheerfully recommend it to anyone in need of such a preparation."—Miss Kate Mott, Minneapolis, Minn.

Meaders' Low Prices.

We will sell any article of merchandise in our store at as low a price as any other merchant named, so long as it is not below actual first cost, which is very seldom the case.

Our regular prices, however, are often as low as many special cut prices, and some times even lower.

We guarantee everything we sell to be as represented, full weight and measure. We cheerfully correct any errors we may make (we suppose everybody makes one now and then.)

We keep medium and high priced merchandise and in all grades and will try to put the price as low as possible.

Call and we will welcome you gladly.

Local News.

Dr. Howard was able to be out in town last Friday for the first time in several weeks.

Rev. W. L. Pierce, Presiding Elder, will preach at the Methodist church at this place next Sunday at 11 o'clock, if not providentially hindered.

WANTED.—To buy timber and timber lands near the Etowah river and its tributaries, in Lumpkin county.

O. J. LILLY, Attorney,
Oct 27 6t Dahlonega, Ga.

Mr. J. M. Ridley, of Argo, Ga., paid us a business trip last Friday afternoon. He dropped some money in the slot for THE NUGGET and gave us the Chastetate Baptist Association Minutes to print, which are completed and ready for him.

U. S. Deputy Collector John Ware was in the city the other day, being his first visit to Dahlonega in a long time. He didn't tarry long until he went to see some of the blockaders. Mr. Ware is an old con at the business and the blockaders all know and dread him.

The postoffice inspector visited several offices in this county and White last week, investigating different matters. The biggest trouble in his rounds seems to be to wheedle people send off writing in tobacco tins as merchandise. At one place before he came here he collected $60 in fines, being $10 each.

Mr. Drew Hollifield, of Dunwoody, Ga., passed through Dahlonega and made a trip across the Blue Ridge last week on a few days hunt, accompanied by several other gentlemen of his section. He is doing well, judging from what we saw in his pocketbook when he went to renew his subscription to THE NUGGET. He was once a Lumpkin county boy and nothing pleases us better than to see or hear of one from her old red hills prospering.

An old confederate veteran rode twelve miles through the cold the other day so he could make an application and get a soldier's badge or cross of honor, as they are called. The ladies could not have pleased these old soldiers any better. The only mistake we think they made was in not letting every veteran of the county send in their applications to be passed upon before any were given out, and a day fixed for each and every one to meet in Dahlonega and receive them at one time. It would have been a happy meeting. Then all could have heard many nice things said about them by speakers appointed for the occasion. The other night was a nice affair, had their been more of them, there being only eight present. Theirs were tendered to them in a speech, which made them feel much better than those who will have theirs handed to them with "here's your badge."

As stated last week charges had been preferred against Postmaster Tate at this place by Mr. Asbury, alleging that some of his mail had been withheld, and an inspector had come up to make an investigation. It originated about the republican chairmanship of the county. Both Mr. Ben Anderson and Mr. Asbury claiming the authority, but those familiar with the facts, knew that Mr. Anderson was elected at the proper time for two years and that time had not expired, and all mail addressed to the chairman belonged to Mr. Anderson. It's true that one meeting was called by Mr. Asbury but few attended it because it was not done by Mr. Anderson. The inspector made a careful examination of the records of each meeting, first where Mr. Anderson was elected, where he afterwards made official calls and presided over the meetings and on up to the one held by Mr. Asbury, and after reading where THE NUGGET had announced it a "big fizzle," the inspector closed the record and said he didn't think there was much in it at the start.

Mr. Aea Crenshaw, of New Bridge, sent us a big sweet potato showing that the plow and hoe on his farm were kept in the proper motion this year.

Another crowd of U. S. geological surveyors came in last week and stretched their tents up near town on the Cooper Gap road for two or three days.

Councilman Will Price has been suffering severe pain for several days with a felon on one of his fingers, rendering him unable to attend to much business.

Mr. Cassada, of Nashville, Tenn., who is interested in some mineral property over in Union county, passed through Dahlonega for that section last week.

After an absence of several months at the Iowa State College, Professor R. W. Davis has returned to Dahlonega and taken his position in the N. G. A. College again.

While playing ball last Saturday, R. C. McWilliams, a student, got one of his shoulders knocked out of place, being the second time such an accident has happened to him. He says now that he is done playing ball.

The first of last week, one of the applicants for the Dahlonega postoffice stated that there would be a change in the postmastership at this place in twelve hours. No change has taken place yet, showing that this man is not much of a prophet.

If you are expecting to become a candidate and wish us to see how your name will take first, send in a quarter of a dollar and we will sound it for you one time in three or four lines. Then later, if it takes well and you wish to announce, drop us $2.50 and we will publish your announcement. This applies only to county officers.

A gentleman of Dahlonega who has always been opposed to working roads by taxation, after visiting Hall county and seeing the big improvements in the public roads under this system, says that his mind has about changed. He says that they are being graded so a man can pull all a wagon will hold on them, with much more ease than he could a partial load before this system was adopted. And last but not least, a county with good roads is always prosperous.

The electric lights have gotten to be so sorry that all our citizens are complaining and speaking of petitioning the manager of the Consolidated Co. for some kind of a change that will give better lights. They are turned on early enough and kept burning long enough but they like a good deal of being bright enough. On Monday night, although there were two lights in the council chamber, a candle had to be used so the clerk could see to write. There is no use of this inconvenience. There is plenty of power and a person in charge who should not be afraid to turn it on. By all means turn on more light. It's true that the moon shines now, but this does no one any good in the house.

Our informant was a little mistaken about the prize singing at Jones' Chapel recently. It was the Macedonia and Yahoola classes that won the prizes of twelve books.

Mr. W. H. Reid, of this county, received a message last Monday that his only brother, Mr. L. L. Reid, in Banks county, was at the point of death, who left the next day to see him.

The registration book will be found in charge of Alderman Smith, at the store of Smith Bro. So if you wish to participate in the next city primary and election you must not forget to register.

Rev. W. J. West, of Hall county, appeared in our office last Tuesday and dropped a dollar in our hand, together with his best wishes for THE NUGGET and its editor, and told us to keep it coming.

Last year Prof. Davis tried an experiment with Irish potatoes on the college farm by planting peelings, pieces with one eye, and so on, up to whole potatoes. We are informed that the whole potatoes produced the best. And the peelings made nearly as good potatoes as the pieces with only one eye.

Mr. Montie Moore and Miss Clifford Castleberry were wedded in Dahlonega last Tuesday morning by Rev. Mr. Marchman, pastor of the M. E. church. The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Castleberry, who has many friends, and the groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Moore, a young man of good moral habits, who stands well in society. The happy couple left at once on a short bridal tour.

You will see from an official notice from the mayor elsewhere that the registration book for the citizens of this town of Dahlonega, either white or black, will be opened on next Monday and close at 10 o'clock at night on the 9th of December. Every male person of the age of 21, who has been a citizen of Georgia 12 months and the town of Dahlonega six, is entitled to register and vote in the next mayor's election, provided he has paid all taxes, state, county and town, up to the year 1905.

Now is the time to get a lot of photographs of yourself and supply your sweetheart and friends while they are cheap. For the next thirty days there will be a considerable cut in the price of them at the gallery of the Dahlonega Portrait Co. Photographs that have heretofore sold at $6 per dozen are now going at $4. And $5 photographs can be had at $3. In addition to these photographs you will get a beautiful calendar. Now is your time to procure first-class photographs cheap.

On Saturday we are told that Ferman Carroll went round to several persons who indulge in strong drink, and told them that if they would give him the money he knew where there was some liquor he could get for them. Several desiring to wet up their "whistles" a little, done as requested, and it is said that the negro got up a right nice little amount of change. The men being full of happiness at the anticipation of getting a few drinks of pure mountain blockade, waited very patiently for quite awhile that night, but as Carroll didn't come, they all retired at a late hour. Next morning there was still no liquor, money nor negro. But imagine their surprise when the next thing they heard of Ferman he had carried $1.50 of the money to Judge Evans and bought him a wife. Sunday night eight of the boys went to his place of abode. He and his new wife were just fixing to retire for the evening. Upon being asked for their money or the liquor it made the groom mad, because he did not want to be disturbed. They went after Marshal Walker. Then Ferman's father gave them the money for his boy, and all returned to their rooms with dry lips.

The inspector directed the postmaster here last week to examine all packages mailed as merchandise to see if they contained any writing. This has been done and in some instances such has been the case. So the guilty parties had just as well have ten dollars each ready for the inspector when he comes again.

CLOSING OUT SALE AT 1ST COST. I am going out of business and offer my stock of goods at first cost, consisting of Dry Goods, Hats, Shoes and Notions. About 800 pairs Shoes. Ladies and Mens Underwear. In fact everything kept in a general store will be sold absolutely at cost except groceries. When I say cost I mean it. I hope to be able to close out in thirty days as other business needs my attention. A more extended notice will be given next week.

M. J. WILLIAMS.

We thought that Mr. Crenshaw's potato was the largest that we would see but Mr. John Cochran, of Nimbellew district, sent us one in last Tuesday that beat his. It weighed seven pounds and made a slice potato pie for a large family. This was not the only large one that Mr. Cochran had in his wagon. There were several nearly as large. The gentleman made about one hundred bushels of potatoes this season, and still some people will talk about moving off to South Georgia. We would not swap old Lumpkin for no county in Georgia, even if we are destitute of railroad facilities.

It seems that there are two or three different companies willing and anxious to build a railroad to Dahlonega provided suitable arrangements could be made. Not long ago one company made an effort to buy out the interest of the Gainesville & Dahlonega Railroad Co., with a desire of completing the road to Dahlonega, but as soon as it was ascertained that all the electric power could not be purchased it was abandoned. Since a gentleman has been sent here to investigate the line talked of from Rossville to Dahlonega. After spending several days in this investigation the gentleman returned to his company with a very favorable report and we have reasons to believe that something is going to be done at an early day.

Mining Notes.

After quite a delay at the Bunker Hill dredge, caused by the breakdown of the pump, all things are now right and the big shovel is again scooping up the precious metal from the bed and banks of the Chastetate.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Crown Mountain Gold Mining and Milling Co. has been called to convene here tomorrow by Mr. Merriek, vice president of the company. It is one of much importance and its actions is looked for with much interest.

We stated last week that the flame work of the Dahlonega Gold Mining and Milling Co. cost only $700 and all had been paid up except $200. We learn that this is a mistake. The work cost thirteen hundred and there is still about eight hundred due the contractor.

Mr. W. B. Fry went up to the head of the Briar Patch canal last Tuesday and made a careful survey of the amount of water the creek would supply. We saw him on his return and he said that there was enough right now, the driest season of the year, to run three giants at the Briar Patch if the canal was completed. Mr. Fry is perfectly reliable.

The chlorination plant has been steadily running down at the Hand mine, treating ores or concentrates from the Hand, Singleton and Lockhart mines. It is said that from every appearance the results will be good. If this be the case it will be very encouraging to gold miners, by showing that the ores are much more valuable than supposed and cause them to adopt some plan to prevent its wastage.

Gen. Warner came up last week long enough to carry one of the members of the U. S. geological bureau over to the Crown Mountain mine, for the purpose of getting some more scientific ideas we suppose. There has been too much of this kind of judgment used already. This is one reason that operations are suspended over there now. We have no doubt if good common horse sense had been used at the Crown Mountain instead of so much of the other that the mine would have been running and paying today.

Just as soon as Moose and McDonald put the water on the Columbia placer diggings of the Standard Co., Mr. Breymann went up on the rent, charging the sixth now, when they only had to pay the tenth royalty before. This is what you might term a yankee trick. The men can't help themselves and will have to pay this royalty until their lease of two or three months expires. Then quite likely he will work it himself, as it is a rich gold mine, prepared to work at their expense and he will have nothing to do but to turn the water on and take the balance of the gold that he does not now get.

The Briar Patch dredge was also idle for some days on account of its undergoing some slight repairs which have been made good this week and it is moving along all right and things down that way are looking brighter now. We learn that a movement is on foot at this time to procure the services of a good competent miner to take charge of the mine by the beginning of the new year. This is a move in the right direction, for nothing can prosper unless it is properly managed, and it takes a general superintendent to do this.

Mr. John Hutcheson has a force of hands placer mining down at the Battle Branch mine with very satisfactory results, so we learn. Nothing but placer work is going on now. The hands are paid cash for their labor every Saturday and it is natural to suppose that they do good work and the mine is prospering. Mr. Hutcheson is a straight forward man and will operate the mine to the best interest of its owner, and at the same time act right with the laborers. We understand that the giant will be run both day and night later, having all the water needed,

Council Proceedings.

The city council of Dahlonega convened in regular monthly session last Monday night with all members present except Alderman Price, who was absent on account of sickness.

Alderman W. B. Gurley's place being made vacant on account of his removal to another Ward, G. H. McGuire was elected by the council to fill the unexpired term, and was placed on the street committee.

The Marshal showed from his report that he had collected the following taxes: Street taxes in cash $31.50; work $6. Property taxes on f. ass., $198.85. Dog tax, $2.00. Fines, $32.00.

After reading some accounts and transacting some other business of little importance the council adjourned to meet again on the first Monday night in December.

MAN WITH THE LAWN MOWER.

Bound by the weight of his wife's sarcasm
He leans upon his lawn mower.
He should be pushing it along.
But oh, the blades are dull,
And his feet are heavy!
Who not you at this profanity provoking task.
Oh, brother of the mule,
Who was it put the handles in your grasp
And sternly ordered, "Mow?"
You know the tale.
When spring was young and gay
Nothing would do, you rare and ornate chump.
But you must have a cottage in the suburbs.
A little lot, forsooth,
With lawn in front
And garden patch behind
And creeping vines along the porch—
That was your dream.
You talked about it in your sleep
And to your friends long suffering and meek
Related it full oft.
And truly in advance it seemed
That life without a mower and a lawn
Were profitless and barren.
How is it now?
You push along your heavy load
Each morn ere to your daily task you go,
And lo, on your return at night
The grass has grown another foot
Or so it seems.
Ah, well, you get no sympathy.
The neighbors like the small boy mocks,
Your wife says, "Lover, love, it is great
And health producing exercise."
Push on, you sorry, fuming lilyfoot.
Perhaps some time you'll learn
That work is never play.
Push on! Your work has no reward—
Your brothers come to eat your garden truck
And cheer you up by saying,
"Great Oyama, but it is a bum job!"
Will future generations call you blessed?
Not much. They'll never know you lived.
Push on, old sport! Roll up your sleeves
And sweat.
You're in for it.

The Sale of Change.
We realize how soon we become back numbers when we stop to think that the man who graduated from school only last year will have to confess as he looks over the maps of Asia in the school books of next year that it wasn't like that in his geography
when he went to school.

However, there will be some consolation as he grows older. He can then take the place of the impressive old man who delights to tell us on all occasions that when he went to school the fertile states were marked on the map as the Great American desert.
Alas for man! He rises in a few brief years, flourishes for a few brief moments, and before he knows it the children are proudly pointing to him as the oldest inhabitant.

More Modern.
"He is making a new kind of cloth
he is going to call wild oats."
"What's the idea?"
"So people can sew their wild oats
on the sewing machine."

Not Equals.
In Australia the bushmen who first filled
the land
Were not men of enterprise, culture or push.
And the men with white faces who now are at hand
Think a run in the town is worth two in the bush.

Away With Vagrants!

Pressure of work to be done at this time of the year has again emphasized the curse of vagrancy in a number of localities in the South, both urban and rural.
Abie-bodied men are loafing at the cross roads or at street corners, with paying tasks awaiting them
in the fields and in the workshop.
They will not work voluntarily.
They should be compelled to work or to move on. Most Southern states have adequate vagrancy laws, but those charged with executing them do not appear to be equal to the emergency. This is hard to understand, but nevertheless seems to be a fact. The pressure of public opinion must be brought, not only upon a community, but upon officers charged with the duty of reducing vagrancy to the minimum.—Southern Farm Magazine.

BEST FOR THE BOWELS

If you haven't a regular, healthy movement of the bowels, you are not well. Bowels, in the shape of stools, should be soft and regular. In Germany, this is the most important, most perfect way of keeping the bowels clear.

A little girl up in Massachusetts fell into the fire the other day and was frightfully burned. The surgeons in attempt to save her life have taken the skins of forty frogs and grafted in on her body. Several years ago a man was run through a cotton gin. Every drop of blood ran out of his veins.
Surgeons immediately went to a pond and caught 440,000 frogs.
They took the blood from each of them and put it into the man's veins. He got well. Since that day the number of frog-blooded men have been constantly on the increase. If this little girl gets well, and we hope that she will,
future generations of women may be as cold to the touch of a man as the frog-blooded men of today are to an appeal for help.—Ex.

A Living Monument.

If we were to assemble all those who have been cured of heart disease by Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and who would to-day be in their graves had not Dr. Miles' been successful in perfecting this wonderful heart specific, they would populate a large city.

What a remarkable record—a breathing, thinking, moving monument, composed of human lives—that for which every other earthly possession is sacrificed.

The Miles Medical Co. receive thousands of letters from these people like the following:

"I feel indebted to the Dr. Miles' Heart Cure for my life. I desire to call the attention of others suffering as I did to this remarkable remedy for the heart. For a long time I had suffered from sickness of the heart, and at times terrible pain in the region of the heart, so serious that I feared that I would some time drop dead upon the street. One day I read one of your circulars, and immediately went to my drugstore and purchased two bottles of the Heart Cure, and took it according to directions. With the result that I am entirely cured. Since then I never miss an opportunity to recommend this remedy to my friends who have heart trouble; in fact I am a traveling advertisement for it, and am widely known in this locality."

In Time of Peace.

In the first month of the Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shined their rifles in dry weather."

The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted, and before it becomes settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

How Editors Get Wealthy.

After a good deal of study and work it has at last been figured out why so many country editors get rich. Here is the secret of success: A child is born in the neighborhood; the attending physician gets $10; the editor gives the long-lunged youngster and the "happy parents" a send-off and get $0. It is christened; the minister gets $10 and the editor $00. It grows up and marries; the editor publishes another long winded flowery article about the "beautiful, accomplished bride; the minister gets $10 and a piece of cake, and the editor gets $000. In the course of time it dies, and the doctor gets $25 to $100, the minister perhaps gets another $15, the undertaker gets from $50 to $100; the editor publishes a notice of the death and an obituary two columns long, lodge and society resolutions, a lot of poetry and a free card of thanks, and gets $0-000. No wonder so many country editors get rich!—Newspaperdom.

A man finds his warmest, his most tender, his most unselfish friend in a woman. Possessing up interests that clash with his, she believes in him thoroughly and hopefully, and her great faith in his powers encourages him to be up to her standard of belief. She makes him feel that she truly likes him. Her affection is frank and free, and she appreciates her sympathetic interest, her cheerful looks, her many little womanly ways that make all her surroundings in harmony with herself. If weary, her sensible, quiet talk rests him; if discouraged, she finds a thousand ways to cheer him; if too late, her sound common sense gives him the needed balance. The lamp of friendship burns clear and bright between man and woman—lit by an emotion springing from the best impulses of human nature.

The Rome Herald gives the recipe for prosperity: "Work hard, deal honestly, but enterprising, exercise careful judgment, advertise freely but judiciously."

Woman's Power.

From his cradle to his grave man relies for his happiness upon the love of woman. His light, his joy, his very life depends blindly and trustfully upon the mother love that nurses his infant years, tends his childhood, trains his youth and rejoices in his manhood. Infinitely holy, utterly self-sacrificing, pure, noble, beautiful is the "maternal instinct"—and knowing the heights of it. Proving its strength, seeing its abnegation of self, men call it divine—and so realize the love of God unto all humanity. Yet even from this fount of exquisite tenderness they turn their steps to a love more alluring, more entrancing, more absorbing; they leave all and cling to their wives, possessing in them everything. Wonderful and peculiar is the mingling of human hearts, of organisms irresistibly attracted, of souls that feel with and for each other, of two brains forming one mind, of two lives and loves from which spring other lives and yet another love—parental affection. This is true marriage, and in this state woman is most lovely. Standing on an equality with her husband, she is adviser and assistant—the sharer of his happiness and his troubles, his helpmeet, his comfort, his joy. That there are marriages far different from this is true, most unhappy; but even here woman shows her power for evil if she chooses to curse, or good, if she desires to bless and enable the life thus brought beneath the personal influence. A great poet says that

As the husband is the wife is; thou art mated with a clown.
And the grossness of his nature will have weight to drag thee down.

This is entirely fallacious. It will always be the strongest that leads, whether their strength be of an intellectual or moral force, and a woman of mind, of refinement, of honorable nature, of idealism, could not fail to modify and even correct the materiality that may exist in her husband's thoughts, feelings, or actions, as his very coarseness would serve to lessen in power. A wife need not sink to the level of the "clown" to whom she is "mated." She can raise him, perhaps slowly, but still surely to her own standard. Let her first touch his heart—through pity, though shame, or even through his mere passions, but once possess power over that and it will not be difficult to influence the brain. If the soil can be made to respond to beautiful and refining agencies, the battle is won. It may take a lifetime, but a woman can afford to spend even a lifetime in such ennobling endeavors.

A man finds his warmest, his most tender, his most unselfish friend in a woman. Possessing up interests that clash with his, she believes in him thoroughly and hopefully, and her great faith in his powers encourages him to be up to her standard of belief. She makes him feel that she truly likes him. Her affection is frank and free, and she appreciates her sympathetic interest, her cheerful looks, her many little womanly ways that make all her surroundings in harmony with herself. If weary, her sensible, quiet talk rests him; if discouraged, she finds a thousand ways to cheer him; if too late, her sound common sense gives him the needed balance. ## Good Manners.

Keep step with anyone you walk with.

Hat lifted in saying "Goodbye" or "How do you do?"

Hat lifted when offering a seat in a car, or acknowledging a favor.

Always precede a lady upstairs, and ask her whether you may precede her in passing through a crowd or public place.

Let ladies pass through a door first, standing aside for them.

Let a lady pass first always unless she asks you to precede her.

Look people straight in the face when speaking or being spoken to.

In the parlor, stand still till every lady in the room is seated, also older people.

Rise if a lady comes in after you are seated, and stand till she takes a seat.

Hat off the moment you enter a street door, and when you step into a private hall or office.

Never play with a knife, fork, or spoon.

Use your handkerchief unobtrusively always.

In the dining-room take your seat after ladies and elders.

Rise when the ladies leave the room, and stand till they are out.

Do not look toward a bed room door when passing. Always knock at a private room door.

Special rules for the mouth are that all noise in eating and smacking of the lips should be avoided.

Improve Your Town.

The old adage that "every little helps," finds no better illustration than in town improvement where slight addition to one's home, premises or business house adds its quota to the good appearance of the town as a whole.

We always want to put our best foot foremost and none of these small aids in such a good cause should be overlooked.

See that your house and grounds are kept in good condition, weeds and grass cut and hoed, yards clean, trash burned and missing fence pickets replaced. Keep your sidewalks in good order.

If your store front windows are dusty and fly specked clean them. Don't allow tobacco expectoration all over your store floor.

Don't throw papers, pasteboard boxes, etc., on the street nor on vacant lots, nor in the railroad ditch. Burn them and all the old rubbish and other trash that you possibly can.

Whenever practicable plant shade trees. No one thing adds as much to a town or village as fine shade trees.—Walden News.

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of All Others Put Together.

Mr. Thos. George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee. I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

A Texas girl advertised for a husband and got him. The total expense for advertising, wedding outfit, etc., were $11. Within a year he died, leaving her an insurance policy of $10,000. And yet some people say it does not pay to advertise. The heart-broken widow at once wired her father: "John died this morning at 10 o'clock. Loss fully covered by insurance."

Negro disfranchisement has been defeated in Maryland.

Hearst will contest the recent election for Mayor in New York.

Mr. Hughes Moore tells us that he is not a candidate for sheriff, nor won't be. He has "other fish to fry."

Judge Russell, candidate for governor, seems to be making a good impression at every place he goes.

The net profit of the state farm this year will be $24,000. The main source of income is 450 bales of cotton.

It is also whispered that Prof. Boyd, Mr. J. M. Brooksher and Capt. F. M. Williams will be in the next race for the senate.

In Pittsburg, Pa., W. E. Erwin has been given six years for stealing $100,000. Much better wages than an honest man is allowed.

It is reported that Rucker, the negro collector, will be removed, and that Harry Stillwell, postmaster at Macon, will be given his place.

Atlanta now wants a big fair in 1910 and no doubt will succeed for she rarely ever undertakes a thing that she does not accomplish.

The store house of A. W. Roberts, at Ball Ground, Ga., was entered by burglars last Friday morning about 3 o'clock who blew open two safes and carried off $1,000.

The postoffices at Price, New Bridge, Albert and Little were discontinued last Wednesday, and the people are supplied by Murrayville R. F. D. No. 2. About 150 families will be served by this route.

The Supreme court has affirmed the sentences of the Rawlings, and unless their cases are appealed to the United States Supreme court or the governor of Georgia interposes, the father and two sons will be hanged for the murder of the Carter children, and ought to be.

Editor Estill, of the Savannah Morning News, is a very modest man. Although he will probably be a candidate for governor, he never refers to the fact in the columns of his great newspaper; and he does not spread slime on any of the gentlemen who have already announced.—Alpharetta News.

Seeing a rumor published in an Atlanta paper in reference to Judge Guber resigning the office of Judge, we asked him about it. In reply he said: "I expect to serve my full term as Judge. I have neither considered nor discussed any other office or appointment. This rumor was not started by my friends."—Marietta Journal.

Prof. Vickery will not allow certain persons here to make a cat's paw out of him, even if he could have spared the time to act as mayor. He well knows that he would have had to neglect his college duties or the towns business. A professor is employed by the state five days in the week, having but little spare time in the afternoons, and if one was mayor and a person violated the law in the morning he would have to go to the lockup till the afternoon, if unable to give bond, costing the defendant extra money, for turn keys and the town 35 cents for his dinner. If able to make bond until the mayor could come, this would cost him $1.25, all on account of having a professor in the college for mayor.

Hon. Tom Bell and the Rural Routes.

It is supposed by some, and begins to look very suspicious, that Congressman Bell is interfering with some of the rural routes in Lumpkin county. If this be a fact he ought not to treat us this way for we are his friends. It's true that Lumpkin county went against him in the primary but her people stuck to him in the final election, and we ought to receive some conveniences at the hands of the government same as those living in other counties. Many of the citizens of Lumpkin county have to go from four to five miles after their mail, which is a hardship on them on account of having to lose so much of their time else be behind in the events of the world. In the farming season during pretty weather some of them do not get their mails often or than once in two weeks. They have asked for relief but none can be gotten. The required number has petitioned for rural routes but because mail contractors and counter petitions against one or two of these routes have been sent in containing names in some instances who do not live near the route, and even little children who never received a paper or letter in their lives, are said to be on it. Is it possible that the minority are going to rule and keep the governments conveniences away from us?

CHANGE OF OPINION.

After Studying the Question Shippers Oppose Government Rate-Making.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15th.—Public officers here have been astonished the past few months at the wonderful change in public sentiment over the country on the subject of regulating railroads rates.

It is a remarkable fact that nearly every convention which has acted in any way on the railway rate question the past six months, has gone on record against the principle of the Esch Townsend bill, which measure was intended to give the Interstate Commerce Commission power to make rates. But the shippers and business men generally, after studying the subject, have decided that they do not want the government to make rates for them. They prefer to negotiate direct with the traffic officials of the railroads.

Everybody wants the rebating stopped, except the few who have been getting the rebates. The railroads join with the shippers in asking Congress to strengthen the laws against unjust discrimination, if the laws need strengthening. But when it comes to placing the power to make rates for the whole country in the hands of a few men, two-thirds or more of the regular shippers object. They fear that the Constitution will get the whole rate situation so mixed up and tangled that great confusion will result and that many of them will lose markets which they now have.

The opposition by the business interests to the government making rates is so strong that it is predicted the Senate bill will be very different in the main from the Esch-Townsend bill.

Two of the hottest set backs to the government rate making plan have been the opposition of the National Farmers Congress and the passage of the E. P. Bacon convention at Chicago. Mr. Bacon has led the fight for the Interstate Commerce Commission for years. He claimed to have almost the solid backing of the commercial interests of the country. When his convention met recently in Chicago, the delegates were two to one against him.

Mr. M. J. Williams tells us that he is certainly going to make the race for sheriff, and is selling out for this purpose.

V. T. Sanford, in Rome jail awaiting another trial for killing George Wright, has filed a petition for a trial at once. Sanford claims that five of the other jurors were prejudiced against him.

A Doctor's Medicine

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is not a simple cough syrup. It is a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine. It cures hard cases, severe and desperate cases, chronic cases of asthma, pleurisy, bronchitis, consumption. Ask your doctor about this.

"I have used a great deal of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs and hard colds on this chest. It has always done me great good. It is certainly a most wonderful cough medicine."—MICHAEL J. FRYBURN, Bedford, N.H.

Harvie Jordan now wants the farmers to hold their cotton for 15 cents. Harvie will overdo the thing if he isn't careful.

R. Z. Justice, suspected of criminally assaulting a little six-year-old negro girl in DeKalb county this week, narrowly escaped being lynched by a mob of 2,000 negroes. Mounted police charged the crowd and saved the man's life. Evidently he was the wrong man.

Those parties who have been fined only ten dollars for sending written matter in packages through the mail as merchandise, have been getting off very light, and it is something that we can't understand. As you all know the penalty of using an official envelope for private business is three hundred dollars. It looks like the other would be more. Any way it is a very costly way of mailing matter and everybody had better quit before Uncle Sam raises his price.

Several persons from our county are now at work on the line from the Dunlap power plant to Atlanta. Iron is being hauled by carload lots for the erection of the steel towers which are to be used in lieu of posts in carrying the heavy cables for the current. The towers will be forty feet above ground, erected like the frame of a windmill, the posts being four feet apart at the ground and 18 inches apart at the top, sunk in concrete foundation four feet in the ground.

Meaders' Low Prices.

We will sell any article of merchandise in our store at as low a price as any other merchant named, so long as it is not below actual first cost, which is very seldom the case.

Our regular prices, however, are often as low as many special cut prices, and some times even lower.

We guarantee everything we sell to be as represented, full weight and measure. We cheerfully correct any errors we may make (we suppose everybody makes one now and then.)

We keep middle and high priced merchandise and in all grades and will try to put the price as low as possible.

Call and we will welcome you gladly.

Cream of Tartar Baking Powder

Food made with alum baking powder carries alum to the stomach unchanged. Scientists have positively demonstrated this and that such food is partly indigestible and unhealthy.

Jim Walker, alias Will Brice's trial was fixed on Monday in Atlanta as being the negro who outraged Mrs. Moore in a turpitude in that city a few days ago. Brice was afterwards arrested in Fairburn, but was taken from the officers by an angry mob. A rope was put around his neck ready for attacking when Sheriff Nelms of Fulton county appeared upon the scene and persuaded the crowd to let the law take its course. Three able lawyers, ex-judges, were appointed to see that he got a fair trial. Monday was set for the trial to begin, but instead of a trial the negro immediately acknowledged that he was guilty and the judge fixed his execution to take place on the 8th of December.

Bro. Townsend, of the Dahlonega Nugget, is a candidate for Mayor, and says he can "warm up" to the race if necessary. We wish we lived there, so we could vote for him.—Union County Banner.

Cards for posting land, for sale at this office.

Don't forget the reduced price in photographs at the Dahlonga Portrait Co.'s gallery.

J. F. Moore & Co. are receiving new goods every week, to be sold at prices that are sure to interest their customers.

Mr. William Ricketts, of Dahlonga, is now at work in Atlanta. Such a fine mechanic as Mr. Ricketts can get work anywhere.

Mr. Paul Castleberry, who has been engaged in business at Griffin, Ga., came home on a visit to his parents here last week.

Prof. Keith, the head of the U. S. Geological department, is in this county now finishing up the work of the mineral survey of this section.

Rev. Mr. Dumas, of Mitchell county, who was recently elected pastor of the Baptist church at Dahlonga, has declined to accept, and the church will have to look in another direction for a guide.

Judge Evans says that during his recent visit out in Nimbilew district he found everybody prospering. They have no fence law there and the woods are full of fine hogs. Three hogs for Nimbilew.

Mr. W. J. Loveless and his son Milton, who are engaged in mining near the Franklin mine, in Cherokee county, were up on a visit last Saturday. They report that preparations are being made to work this celebrated mine on a big scale again.

The Dahlonga football team went over to Athens last Saturday and played with Georgia. The game resulted in favor of the Georgia team by 10 to 12. That night the friends of the winners had a bon fire in that city, a spark caught a ware house, resulting in a loss of $20,000. So this is what ball games cause.

"Shotgun" Walker, who lives up at the foot of Little Cedar Mountain, brought down a mess of green beans, just gathered from the vines. He also had some blooms along. They had the first killing frost at many places up that way last Saturday—this season. Late frosts ought to encourage them to raise cotton. There is plenty of land in that section, as well as various portions of the county, which will not produce corn but will make splendid cotton.

When the congressional candidates were canvassing the county they were going to see that we had a number of rural routes starting from Dahlonga, but not a single one have we yet. One reason is, we have too many selfish citizens in Lumpkin county. Where selfish people do not live the counties are more prosperous. The inspector that came to Dahlonga went to White county two weeks later and one or more routes have already been granted the people of White. Lumpkin county will always be behind as long as her citizens act in such a manner.

We understand that there is a move on foot to get a ticket elected that will have all the hogs put outside of the corporate limits of Dahlonga. There is a large amount of meat raised within the corporate limits, which is a big benefit. The raising of meat is a benefit to our people and what benefits the people benefits us, is why we are opposed to any change. Of course every one has a perfect right to his opinion as well as to vote for who he pleases. If such an ordinance is passed we are willing to defray half the expenses of having a higher court to say whether people have a right to keep hogs in the corporate limits after paying both state and county and municipal taxes on them and at the same time comply with the sanitary law. Then this will settle it and show what privileges we are entitled to.

A new supply of Justice's Court Summons just printed at this office.

Mr. Floyd Duckett came over from Pickens county last week and had a nice time killing birds.

Miss Essie Duckett came over from Pickens county last Saturday and spent Sunday in Dahlonga with relatives.

Col. Stobo Farrow, a brother of Col. Henry P. Farrow of this county, died a few days ago at his home in Columbus, S. C.

You will see by a notice elsewhere in this issue that M. J. Williams is closing out his stock of goods at absolutely cost.

We saw a load of pine come in to Dahlonga last Friday from White county. Twelve or fifteen miles is a long way to haul it but still it was done.

Remember that John H. Moore is still at his old stand with a big supply of fresh beef, pork, sausage and all the groceries that you need. The price of some beef has been reduced.

Rev. Mr. Sutton, an Alabamian, preached at the Baptist church here last Sunday. His sermon was said to be a very dull one, and unusually long to the ones preached here.

We meant to say last week that the person who said their would be a change in the postoffice here in twelve hours was not much of a prophet and "no profit." Any way, their is still no change.

Prof. R. W. Davis wrote that he would be here last week on Wednesday and we did not know but what he had returned, but we are informed that he got a little more time and did not come in then.

Mr. J. B. Brooksher, who resides in the suburbs of Dahlonga, says that he expects to plant several acres in cotton next year. Let others do likewise, and those who do will have something to be proud of next October and November.

Our friend, Mr. Craig R. Arnold, just across the street from Trip Nugget office, would make a good farmer as well as a miner. He has in his lot, hogs, chickens, turkeys, guineas, and is smart enough to talk to half a dozen persons at the same time and keep each interested. We like him, because he attends to his own business and lets other peoples alone.

The city council had a special meeting last Saturday afternoon. The object of it was to investigate an appeal made by Alderman T. J. Smith from a decision of the street committee concerning the erection of a porch proposed by Mr. Smith on a portion of the sidewalk in front of the old Signal building, which he is now converting into a store house. Mr. Smith wishes to build the porch there because most of the others on that side are out on it, agreeing to move it when the others do. But an ordinance was passed by the city council some years ago, adopting the Ben Hall survey, requiring new fences or buildings erected to be put back on the line. Notwithstanding this, some former councilmen have neglected to have these ordinances complied with in every respect. The charter says when a change is desired in a street all those on the opposite side of said street must sign a petition, asking that such change be made before it can be done legally. Then if all the citizens on the opposite side of Clarksville street wish some six or eight feet sold off of the other side, they must say so in their petition. After which the council will have to repeal the Ben Hall survey and sell that land, provided it can get a purchaser. Some oppose narrowing any of the streets here on account of it being more dangerous about fire, while others may not wish to buy any land they have in possession until they have to rebuild. So this is the way the matter stands and will come up before the next regular meeting of the council.

Mr. J. F. Moore is now in Rome and will return next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Palmour, of Gainesville, were here yesterday. Merchant Ben Anderson has been down in Jackson county doing some collecting.

The college football team goes to Barnesville to play with the boys down there Monday.

At John H. Moores you will find a splendid grade of syrup. No better in town. Try it.

Else, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McGees little girl, about a year old, died yesterday morning at 8.

Mr. Joe Walden has a notion of moving to Jackson county, where he can make lots of cotton. Success to him.

Mr. T. C. Satterfield, of this county, has sold out and left yesterday for lower Georgia in search of a new home.

The lower Gainesville mail will arrive later now on account of having to come by Murrayville, one and one fourth mile out of the way.

Mrs. Nelson Sosbee died at New Bridge last Wednesday at the age of about 65. Had been a strict member of the M. E. Church for many years.

Jim Ferguson, of this county, was brought home Wednesday from near Ball Ground, Ga., where he was badly hurt by a log rolling on him.

Col. Bryson has returned from his South Georgia trip. He says that it is a good country but does not know yet whether he will make it his future home or not.

WANTED.—To buy timber and timber lands near the Etowah river and its tributaries, in Lumpkin county.

O. J. LALLY, Attorney, oct 27 61 Dahlonga, Ga.

Last week relatives here received a message from Mr. G. C. Wallace at McCays, Tenn., stating that William, a son of Mr. John Porter, formerly of Lumpkin county, had been killed at the furnace.

Some persons get mad because people post their lands to keep them from killing the birds. Did you ever think for a moment, who feeds and raises the birds by planting grain just the same as for the chickens?

Ordinary Evans spent two or three days out in Nimbilew district last week, looking after some bridges and roads. The Judge has a watchful eye on the county's interest all the time and makes a Number One ordinary.

One of our enemies in discussing the mayors race said that a man at the proper time could take a quart of liquor and vote about all the negroes his way. We don't believe it. If such a time has ever been, it is a thing of the past now.

Mr. John Marr, formerly of Lumpkin, but now of Jackson county, was up on a visit among his many friends here last week. John has fourteen bales of cotton this year and will pick some more yet. We are all glad to hear of his success.

At the last term of Lumpkin Superior court the grand jury returned a true bill against Ben Clark, col., and Malissa Sanford, a white woman, for living together near the foot of the Blue Ridge. Sheriff Davis went up last week and took a bond for his appearance at the next term of the Superior court, and later on will ask the woman to do likewise.

The other day we saw a man in town who used to make and sell blockade liquor all the time, clearing but little money. For some years past he has been out of the blockade business and giving his entire attention to the raising corn, cabbage and Irish potatoes, making money, and this year tells us that he will have three thousand pounds of meat to sell. Others could do just as well if they would cease violating the law and give their attention to farming. Try it.

John Castleberry, col., was fined $2 and cost Monday for fighting Jim Swinger when he made a call at his house when living here last June.

We learn that the upper daily mail line from Dahlonga to Gainesville will be suspended later on and the people will be supplied by rural routes.

Some of the farmers have made large crops of corn, while others have not done so well. However, there will be plenty in the county for all, if too much of it is not made into liquor.

Judge Evans requested us to state that the commissions for Notary Publics are here. Come and get them, and then call around at Trip Nugget office and let us fit you up with blanks.

The three-year-old girl of Mr. Goodman Walden, of this county, was severely burned the other day by a pan of water turning over on it, taking the skin off from the back of its neck to its waist.

We learn that Mrs. Mary Britton is deranged again and doubtless will have to be sent to the asylum, as she threatens to kill her husband and he is afraid of her. We certainly sympathize with the Judge.

A nice possum visited at our home the other day and gave itself up and it was soon in the pot. It may be that a change has been made and 'possums will be sent hereafter instead of ravens to care for the hungry.

In this issue the name of Mr. Steven Rice has been mentioned as a suitable person to represent the people of the Second Ward in the city council. Mr. Rice is a good man and made a faithful councilman more than once.

The towns registration book is now open at T. J. Smith & Bro. If you have resided in the state 12 months and in the town six and paid all taxes up to this year you are entitled to register and vote in the mayor's election.

Hutcherson Bro's, at Freda, are fixing to move to Atlanta. We regret to see them leave, for they are good citizens and men who will do well in any country. With their single-machine alone this year they have cleared $800, the biggest portion of it being made during the summer.

The colored people had a big time on Monday night. The pastor of the Baptist church went out and caught ten 'possums and gave a supper, so as to enable him to get something to drop into his empty pocketbook. One preacher came all the way from Gainesville and enjoyed himself very much, as do all the rest present.

On last Monday some of the boys from Dahlonga, while out hunting near the Bunker Hill dredge boat, set the woods a fire while lighting a cigarette. The fire got into the company's wood yard and destroyed twelve or fifteen cords of wood. It is a violation of law to sell boys cigarettes or smoking tobacco but still they get them here.

Prof. O'Byrne, one of the teachers in the N. G. A. College, came from the cold mountains of Colorado.

Our customers were a little strange to him at first and we use too much bread in our vittals here to suit his taste, but he is becoming civilized, and used to the people and is getting along splendidly. He takes a big interest in the school boys and they all like him. So does every citizen who is acquainted with him.

Mr. Asbury is telling it around that Mr. Joe McGee is a candidate for mayor. It might be well enough for him to know that Mr. McGee has stated that he has been serving the town four years and is done after this year. We heard him say this. As this old man wants some one to run against us so bad why don't he make the race? Maybe he could control his own vote and get one. Mr. McGee has been one of the city tax assessors every one of these years, been on the finance committee and has had enough to make him tired.

A new school house is being erected up in Cane Creek district.

Wanted, at once, six (6) or (8) turkeys. COLLEGE DORMITORY.

Col. J. H. Moore and lady have gone to Canton, Ga. From there they will likely go to Nashville.

WANTED.—A car load of mules and horses. J. M. BROOKSHER. Dahlonga, Ga.

In a few instances subscribers have made remittances and we credited same on book but failed on mailer. Always let us know of a mistake.

It will be seen from the turkey ad. of Prof. Barnes elsewhere in this issue that the Dormitory boys will have all the turkey they can eat Thanksgiving.

Drummers, at Bruce's Place you will find good clean beds, plenty to eat, and that which is nice. Try us when you come to town and be convinced.

Several of our citizens went up to Mr. Davis Jarrard's corn shucking near Porter Springs first of the week. They found a big pile of corn and a table supplied with enough good things for a wedding party.

The persons already figuring around for sheriff in addition to Sheriff Davis are Messrs. T. M. Ray, M. J. Williams and J. B. Graham, so we understand. Judging from this there is lively times in store for the people of Lumpkin later on.

We understand the manner in which ex-Confederate soldiers get the Cross of Honor, but stated that if they had waited until a hundred or more of this county made applications, that they could have all met here during the day and a bigger time could have been had. That's the only difference.

Sheriff Davis went out Monday in the eastern portion of the county and arrested Seab Land, col., and Mrs. Lela Sallins, charged with an assault and battery. It is alleged that this negro man held his wife until Mrs. Sallins and her husband gave the colored woman a severe whipping, showing that Seab didn't think much about the marriage vow he took. Mr. Sallins hasn't been arrested yet.

One day this week Henry Miner, of Dawson, got a good mare killed at New Bridge, in Lumpkin county, by the animal backing off into the river, caused by the report of the blasting that was being done by some road hands on the far side. Mr. Miner is the gentleman whose child was killed in a runaway in Dawson county some months ago. It is said that the hands doing the blasting failed to give any alarm. If this be true Mr. Miner may recover damages for his loss.

Hon. Tom Bell has written to parties here for some statistics about the U. S. Mint that we used to have, with a view of having it re-established. This would be very nice, but let us have some rural routes first so all the miners residing in the county can send their gold here for getting in less than three or four days. Such poor mail facilities as some of them have might discourage them so that they would not appreciate a mint the way they are situated. Let us learn to crawl before we try to walk.

On Monday about sundown, when the power was turned on to the electric plant of the Consolidated Co. down at the Hand, a pulley or drive wheel, got loose on the shaft. This gave the large wheel extra power and it revolved so rapidly that it did some five or six hundred dollars worth of damages before it could be stopped. The brass on the sides of the wheel flew in every direction but no one was close enough to get hurt. The electrician had stepped out of the building to get a box when the accident occurred. So the town is in darkness but Mr. Balford is using every effort possible to get new pieces as soon as they can be had and have things here brighter than they have been for some time.

Mining Notes.

The Barlow veins hold out both in richness and size.

Mr. C. W. McAfee is now working the McAfee Lode under a lease.

The vein on the Findley, discovered by Mr. Wash Jenkins, is still good.

It will take until about the first of the month to finish chlorinating at the Hand.

Mr. Eldridge, the temporary superintendent of the Briar Patch and Calhoun mines, is giving them his closest attention.

There is large beds of iron ore already discovered in Lumpkin county but it is useless to its owners without a railroad.

Mr. Crisson has closed his mine down until spring. He says that he can't afford to buy water to run a gold mine with in the winter time.

We understand that the Moose and McDonald placer mine is worth half pennyweight to the hand. We have since talked with Mr. Moose and he said they did strike a bar this rich but have already worked through it.

The stockholders meeting of the Crown Mountain Co. was to have met here last Saturday. It was postponed to be held in Gainesville on Tuesday, then a meeting be held in Dahlonga on Wednesday to legalize what they did there but no one has yet appeared here.

The Singleton mill will be idle until they open out their new cut. Work also commenced a few days ago in the Talabeneza incline. Mr. Breymann told us before he moved the mill that there was already ore in sight to run for several years and we so stated it. This shows the old gentleman's gold mining judgment to be bad.

Mr. Riddell, of Auraria, was in town last Tuesday. He looks after the dredge of the Bunker Hill Mining Co., which he reports as being in good shape again and everything running along smoothly. There were ten gentlemen down from the West the other day looking over the property. It was the first visit for seven of them and all expressed themselves as being well pleased.

The manager of the Standard Co. charging our natives the sixth royalty and then only give a three months lease is going to be a big drawback on its part as well as the whole district, for men can't afford to lose time in prospecting and pay such a big royalty for so short a lease. The company must not expect the money that it has wasted to be made up this way. So this property will go undeveloped and do no one any good unless there is a change.

In answer to numerous inquiries about the Castleberry mine, we can only give out the information that the mine is now owned by Buell and Sovey, of Auraria, Georgia. We do not know what their intentions are, but judging from the way they are developing their other holdings it will not be long until they have it in operation. It is one of the very best mines in the district and with a reasonable sum of money spent in development on it, it will turn out gold in big paying quantities. We have longed to see this property in operation and we believe that our longings will soon be fulfilled.

In writing to Mr. S. S. Smith, of the eastern portion of Lumpkin county, about the recent iron discoveries on his property, this is what he says: As regard my iron mine, I have discovered a very large and valuable deposit of iron, containing also other valuable mineral. It has been traced upon the surface by me for nearly the entire length of my place, 190 acres. I have also made the attempt to open the copper mine adjacent, and in doing a little work have found fine specimens of that metal. From my own personal knowledge I am led to believe that iron lies in old Lumpkin county in large quantities, and which if I am correct in my belief, will be a boon to this section of the state.

Life is Constructive.

A certain evangelist is using a card on one side of which is the question, "What must I do to be saved?" and following it are the Scriptures which point out the way of Salvation. On the other side of the card is the question, "What must I do to be lost?" and the answer follows, "Nothing."

The reply is simple but wonderfully impressive. Many think that in order to be lost they must run the gamut of vices and be aggressively bad. Not so. We are all bad enough to miss the kingdom in spite of the good points we may have.

Life is an active, constructive force. It is likened unto a living temple or unto a vine. It must therefore be built up, and unless there is activity there is no building. Unless there is active goodness there is no character, and unless there is character there is no salvation.—Brethren Evangelist.

A young lawyer, according to the Springfield Republican, received a call from a farmer in need of legal advice. The lawyer looked up the statutes and told the farmer what he should do. "How much?" said the farmer. "Well, let's call it $3," said the lawyer. The farmer handed over a $5 bill. The lawyer seemed embarrassed. After searching his pockets and the drawers of his desk he rose to the occasion and pocketed the bill as he reached for a digest. "I guess, neighbor," he remarked, as he resumed his seat, "I shall have to give you $2 worth more of advice."

That a woman can sometimes keep a secret is evidenced by the case of Miss Vanbaugh of Trinidad, Colo., who for the past forty years has masqueraded as a man, so effectively hiding her sex that it was never once suspected until a hospital examination brought the deception to light. She adopted the male disguise because at that time a prejudice existed against women working.—Marietta Journal.

Sick Headache

When your head aches, there is a storm in the nervous system, centering in the brain. This irritation produces pain in the head, and the turbulent nerve current sent to the stomach causes nausea, vomiting. This is sick headache, and is dangerous, as frequent and prolonged attacks weaken the brain, resulting in loss of memory, inflammation, epilepsy, fits, dizziness, etc.

Alay this stormy, irritated, aching condition by taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They stop the pain by soothing, strengthening and relieving the tension upon the nerves—not by paralyzing them, as do most headache remedies.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do not contain opium, morphine, chloral, cocaine or similar drugs.

"Sick headache is hereditary in my family. My father suffered a great deal, and for many years I have been unable to attend to my business affairs for a day or so at a time. During a very severe attack of headache, I took several Anti-Pain Pills and they relieved me almost immediately. Since then I take them when I feel the spell coming on and it never fails to give me relief."

In Time of Peace.

In the first month of the Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it becomes settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

His Thoughts Were Far Off.

Oliver Peabees Jenkins of Stanford University is head professor of the department of zoology. He is a scientist, and therefore a deep thinker, and consequently often preoccupied and absent minded. His most recent adventure at tributable to his absent minded propensities is at present furnishing much amusement for the faculty.

He was reading one evening after dinner when his wife approached and touching him on the shoulder, remarked softly: "Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Branner are coming over this evening, so just go up stairs and put on your outer coat."

The quiet little professor complied without a murmur. An hour later, when the visitors had been in the house some time, the hostess excused herself for a moment and slipped up stairs to see what detained Dr. Jenkins. She found him in bed calmly sleeping. "Oh, to be sure, the Branners," he said when she awakened him. "I'll be right down. I guess I was a little absent minded. I must have forgotten when I came up for when I removed my coat, for I kept right on undressing and went to bed."—San Francisco Chronicle.

About Dahlonega's Affairs.

Mr. Editor:

As the city election is not far off I would like to say a few words through the columns of THE NUGGET. What I write may not meet your approval on account of your candidacy for the office of mayor, but I trust that you are liberal enough to let a person discuss matters of interest to the town whether they meet your views or not. All newspaper men should be willing to do this.

Now to the point. What the citizens of Dahlonega need to put down vice, sin and drunkenness is a mayor who is not afraid to enforce the law. There are ordinances enough against all those things if we could get a man to do his duty without favor or affection. It is not a rare thing to see some prominent person under the influence of liquor, and frequently an official tight enough to curse on the streets and public square like some horse driver, yet they are never molested. If it is in the fault of the marshal discharge him and get one that will. Blockade liquor is brought here nearly every week and only one arrest has been made in years, and he was fined and turned loose when he ought to have been bound over to the Superior court. Pernia is sold right in the town as a beverage. There is an ordinance against it but the officials close their eyes on it, although it is bringing about more misery and distress right here than all the liquor traffic combined, being a drawback to the churches and everything else that tends to lift up mankind. And last but not least, there are two or three loved houses out in the suburbs of the town and have been for a long time, contrary to both city and state laws, which are known to the city authorities but none of them have ever been molested by our authorities yet. What is the use of having the place incorporated and the people taxed to pay a marshal unless his laws are enforced?

This is very discouraging to a person who favors law and good and I have made up my mind to vote for no man for mayor unless he agrees to punish all violators of the law and that severe enough to stop their devilment at once. Are you willing to do it?

FOR GOOD MORALS.

NOTE.—It is the first time we ever heard of a candidate for mayor in Dahlonega having to make a pledge to an individual in order to get his vote. The truth is we don't believe our correspondent means to vote for us. Though the pledge we made him not to divulge his name before he would give us the letter whether we published it or not, will be kept. We are honor bound to do this as a newspaper man. Now as to the loved houses, thinking or believing is different to knowing that such is the case. Before a mayor can punish a criminal he must have some proof. We don't suppose this has been obtained otherwise the law would have been enforced. We will say to our correspondent that we will agree to do our duty if elected, but will not promise to be on the extreme in order to get his vote or any one else's vote.

The Man With Faith in His Town.

What manner of man makes the best citizen? asks the Albany Herald and proceeds to answer the question pretty completely, as follows:

To begin with, such a man must be law-abiding. He must have respect for the institution we call government, and a hardly less regard for those numerous unwritten laws of society which are indissolubly welded with our customs and institutions.

Furthermore, he must be industrious. Laziness is not a part of the man who helps build cities and states. He must count that day lost which has not seen his hand turned to the creation of improvement of something, somewhere, somehow. He must be a man of integrity—just, honorable, square.

He must have respect for the opinions of his neighbors, and not feel that those who do not agree with him on public questions are brakes on the wheels of progress. But a man may be all these—may be a "good citizen"—and still lack one thing which his neighbor possesses and which makes the latter a more useful member of the community with which his lot is cast.

This man is the one who has an abiding faith in his town.

He, it is, above all others, who is always pulling for better things. He is always on the front seat of the community hand wagon. He is the first resident to greet the stranger and tell him that he is visiting the best town in the state. He is ready to fight, at the drop of a hat the fellow who willingly runs down the community's best along with its worst, and there is something inspiring in his cordial invitation to the chronic croaker to "move somewhere else."

He is always ready to give, according to his means, to community enterprises. He takes stock in them all, and doesn't lose his faith if occasional venture proves bad. He is not afraid to buy real estate and to pay what it is worth. He talks up his town at home and abroad, thinks it is the healthiest place on earth, believes it to be destined to be the biggest city in its section and wants to be buried there when he dies.

And he's worth a whole regiment of the lake-warm kind.

Race Suicide.

They were from the farm and had a prosperous look. There were five of them and they just filled a whole row in a summer car. They had come for the Exposition, but spent the morning at the Carnegie gallery and library, the conservatory and the park. They enjoyed it, too, and were eager in their comments of what they saw. The father was sturdy and sixty and the mother sixty and fair. Three boys, from twenty two, perhaps, down to twelve, keen-eyed, with bright countenances and neatly dressed, made up the rest of the family. All were healthy and happy. No race suicide in their township! It was a picture of gentle womanhood and virile manhood and budding boyhood, and it made one long for the farm.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Official Organ of both City and County.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

The Georgia Baptist Convention is now in session at Macon.

Mr. Mitchell has been nominated mayor of Gainesville.

It is said that Hearse spent $63,843 in cash during his race for mayor in New York.

$4,000,000 worth of liquor was destroyed by fire at a distillery near Connessville, Pa., last Sunday.

Mr. Milliken, of Winder, Ga., sold a hog in Gainesville last week, weighing 1,100, says the Eagle.

Money is being raised by the negroes of Atlanta to test the insanity of Jim Walker, alias Will Bruce, Mrs. Moores assailant.

The other day in Dawson county, Mr. John Odom got one of his arms so badly injured by a cotton gin that it had to be amputated, causing his death.

We were sorry to learn of the illness of our friend, Mr. W. B. Shipp, of Gaddistown, but are pleased to be able to state that he is improving now.

Mr. N. J. Nix tells us that he is a candidate for tax collector and will make further announcement later on. He says he means to be in it until after the primary.

A fellow started a false report this week that certain friends of ours would not vote in the mayors election now and that some of our kindfols would vote against us but we must not say that he is a member of the church.

Down at Waycross, last week, the grand jury returned bills against the druggists of that city for selling Perina. A private letter to us states that not a single druggist escaped. The price of being drunk on the public highways in that county was fixed at $50 and cost. $150 for cursing in presence of ladies, and so on.

We have for our opponent for mayor Mr. J. E. McGee. He is a very fine man and we expect to make a friendly race. Neither of us belong to the church and the "skillet can't call the pot blacky." We will beat him if we can, and if we fail we won't quit the country, and trust that none of our enemies will faint with joy. It will take the election to decide it, for these days when some men ask you to run it takes time to tell. One who asked us to run has already changed because we wouldn't vote for an alderman to build his porch on the street. He knows Mr. McGee did favor it. By doing justice between man and man, we have opinion.

Now, a few words about the registration book of Dahlonega. The law directs the city council to appoint the town clerk, treasurer or some one else to open the registration book for a certain length of time before a mayors election. This has been done. Treasurer T. J. Smith was appointed. Then the law says that the one appointed (no substitute) SHALL administer a certain oath to each voter before he is allowed to register. This law has not been complied with. Some are qualified. Others are not. And men go in the store and register when Mr. Smith is not present nor in town. And last but not least, one of Mr. McGees workers, not the one appointed, while out in his friends behalf, proposed to bring the book down in town and let a man register. Let the "clouds roll by" and likes they will spend a little money to see what it takes to make a legal election.

They Want to Round Up the Students.

A move is on foot now by some of the trustees of our college for the Consolidated Co's hotel to be rented again for a dormitory and force all the male students attending to board and stay at this and the other dormitory—that is until they are full, then the surplus can be at liberty to board where they please. This new arrangement to begin the first of January provided the committee appointed can make suitable arrangements.

Our notion is that it is the worst step the board ever made, for it will cause our population to decrease here, and not only injure the town but the college and the graded school which feeds this institution, and cause the taxes of citizens who do not leave to be a burden for them to pay. People have moved in to keep boarders so as to enable them to educate their sons and daughters. Deprive them of this privilege and they are gone. Others will take their boys from college as soon as this plan is adopted. They pay their way and want to have the privilege of putting them in charge of persons they know—maybe a relative, and when this is denied they will turn them in another direction. We know of one gentleman down the country who wishes to send two of his sons to Dahlonega next year, one to enter college and the other the graded school until the boys gets farther advanced. Of course he would want them to board and stay together. When he learns that they can't do this he will not send them.

Parties here make from twenty to one hundred dollars per month boarding students. Why cripple them in their business to do a thing that will not benefit the college one cent, but on the other hand injure it?

Should the students all be at one place and a single case of any contagious disease was to break out among them it would close the college doors maybe for months. If the boys were scattered this would not be the case.

Friends, better let well enough alone.

Christian Billie Signal Exploded Last Week.

We understand that there was serious trouble over at the Signal office last week, by little Billie getting so full of imaginary religion that he burst, throwing the gas in the direction of THE NUGGET office. The little thing often takes spells but this is the worst one he has had yet.

We suppose that he aims to try to be Mr. Asbury's little man Friday. The old man has made it a business to talk about us every day since preacher Gunn was here, when an opportunity is offered, and Billie has been at it longer, but takes it by spells. As the old saying is "there is a screw loose" in Mr. Asbury, but there is not enough substance of manhood about Billie to produce a screw, and if the Lord had anything to do with Billie it was to put him in Dahlonega solely for a curiosity and a pest. Now, Capt. Woodward, his father, is a fine man, one who we love and respect. If Billie had sense enough to take the Captains advice the feeling between us would be different to what it is today.

Billie is like a polecat. His garment is nice and smooth, and will pretend to be friendly enough to ext you up, but all at once the stench will come. The only difference is the polecat will not try to harm anybody until it is molested. Billie will. He begins to use his tail first.

We have said nothing about him or done anything to him lately to cause him to use his tail like we did last week. A few weeks ago in mentioning his wives death we stated that we sympathized with Billie in the loss of his companion. Surely he didn't get mad at us. It may be that some one refused the little fellow for a nickel's worth of goods on a credit, because they had not forgotten about Billie setting an honest debt by cbeduling, being the one of The Bank of Dahlonega, with Dr. Jones as security, who helped him secure this money for the purpose of buying him a cow, and this is the way christian Billie treated the Doctor. The people have been greatly surprised by the most worthless land of this country producing good results by fertilization. It may be that if this imitation of a man was properly fertilized that he might make something yet. So try it, Billie. Take a little dry pulverized guano and sniff it up your nose once a month just as you begin to take one of these spells and then bite yourself. We feel confident that it will keep your body from wilting, strengthen your brain and cause your mind to grow, and maybe make a man out of you in the near future.

Is Your Hair Sick?

That's too bad! We had noticed it was looking pretty thin and faded of late, but naturally did not like to speak of it. By the way, Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair grower, a perfect hair restorer. It keeps the scalp clean and healthy.

"I am well acquainted with Ayer's Hair Vigor and like it very much. It would especially recommend it as an excellent dressing for the hair, keeping it soft and smooth, and preventing the hair from falling out at the roots."—Nathan Turner, Washburn, Me.

We have the members of that little combination formed this week down in our note book.

Hon. Clark Howell has made his formal announcement for governorship of Georgia. His platform is quite lengthy, but interesting. Among other things, he wants railroads regulated and free passes for public officials abolished, and says that disfranchisement of blacks would be dangerous.

Some have as an excuse for not supporting us for mayor that we are too plain in publishing things about church members, yet when an editor is charged with anything they get tickled almost bad enough to lose their pants when they see it in print. When an official, either state or government, gets into trouble isn't it the custom to tell what position he holds or what party he belongs to, and whether he is a prominent alhanceman, Old Fellows or Mason? The dailies do this and carry the news from one end of the globe to the other and no kick is made about it. Some of you who "buck" the most have voted for men for mayor of Dahlonega who got drunk, cursed and told lies, and supported men for councilmen who not only drank liquor but gambled and made love to women—some of the latter copper colored, yet we must not say that they were church members. Do you deny it? We can raise the curtain at any time, either before or after the election. The christians of Dahlonega don't talk about us.

Corn shuckings are the order of the day now.

A certain young man went to a corn shucking the other day who was so greedily that while dining he slipped a chickens foot in his pocket to gnaw on in case he got hungry. As time passed the chickens foot left his mind. Then he purchased some candy to give to a young lady and dropped it into one of his pockets until a favorable opportunity was offered. He told her to reach her hand into this pocket and see what a nice present he had for her. She got into the wrong pocket and she drew the chickens foot, which caused her to say, "he, that there is no probability of being a lifetime match between these two now."

The boys conduct last Saturday night will likely receive the attention of Judge Kimsey.

We heard an interesting sermon last Sunday by Revs. W. T. Dowdy and D. W. Caldwell.

R. B. Taylor was elected clerk Superior court of Dawson county last week, to fill the unexpired term of his father, who recently died. He had no opposition, causing a very quiet election.

APPLICATION OF AMENDMENT TO CHARTER.

Georgia, Lumpkin County.

To the Superior Court of said County:

The petition of the Southern Power and Mining Company, respectfully represents:

1. That on the 14th day of July, 1905, your Honorable Court granted a charter to the Southern Power and Mining Company, and that said Company has been duly organized under said charter.

2. Said Company petitions that your Honorable Court will amend said charter as follows: That paragraph 8th of said charter shall be amended so as to read as follows: (8) They desire as such corporation to have the right to vote and be sued; to have and use a common seal; to constitute and elect a Board of Directors consisting of not less than five nor more than nine members; as may be fixed by the By-Laws, to manage the affairs of the corporation, and the same, to alter and amend from time to time as the needs of the corporation may require, and to elect such officers as it may deem necessary and usual; and they desire all such powers and privileges as may be conferred upon and are incidental to corporations of said state of Georgia which under the laws of said state are chartered by the Superior Courts.

Wherefore your petitioners pray your Honorable Court that the foregoing Amendment to said charter be granted and allowed conferring upon said corporation the rights and powers as in said Amendment set forth with like force and effect as if so set forth in the original petition upon which said charter was duly granted.

Gainesville Midland Files Big Mortgage.

The first mortgage for an amount not to exceed one million dollars has been filed in the office of the clerk of the Superior court of Jackson county from the Gainesville Midland Railroad Company to the Savannah Trust Company of Savannah.

The mortgage secures the bond issue which was recently made for the purpose of taking up former issues of $175,000 and $50,000 respectively. Also $100,000 was set aside to extend the road from Jefferson to Athens, broaden the gauge from Gainesville to Jefferson, and from Belmont to Monroe; and for other improvements in the road now operated as the Gainesville Midland.

This leaves of the million dollars $875,000 to be used in extending the road in the future from Gainesville to Dahlonega, the pyrites mine, or to connect with the A. K. & N., at some convenient point north of Gainesville; if the management should decide to thus extend the road, which is probable.—Jackson County Herald.

Stranger, don't think that "Dr. Tong," the deacon who is going around telling lies about the editor of this paper is a fair sample of the church, for he is not. We have as good a religious people in Dahlonega as ever breathed. Most all flocks of sheep have a black one in them, and members of the church some times get an official punishment by using deceit.

Local News.

Mr. M. N. Stow was up from Gainesville this week.

Prof. Ferguson of Dahlonega is still cutting lettuce from his garden.

Mr. Will Kennum, who used to reside in this county, spent last Sunday in Dahlonega.

Mrs. Floyd Anderson is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Satterfield, at Athens, Ga.

Mr. W. H. Wimpy was in town the other day feeling good, because he made more corn this year than he did last.

Mr. Oscar Dyre was wedded to Miss Julia Worley, a daughter of Mr. T. H. Worley, by Squire McGuire last Tuesday evening.

Mr. Hughes Anderson is going to be the first person to introduce the raising of cotton in Crumby's district by planting ten acres next year.

Mr. C. M. Head, of Monroe, Ga., was in Dahlonega last Monday visiting relatives, and at the same time, made Tine Nugent man a profitable call.

The college attendance is much better than usual and the students are all quiet, orderly, and taking advantage of the opportunities offered them.

W. P. Price's nice display in his window of the American Biscuit Co.'s goods is very attractive. He keeps all kinds of these choice crackers. Go and see him.

Sheriff Davis requests us to state that after consulting his friends throughout the county, that he has decided to be a candidate for re-election and that his announcement will appear later on.

The motion for a new trial of Lingerfelt, of this county, for shooting Swancy a short time ago, was argued before Judge Kimsey at Cleveland last Saturday. Baker and Lilly for the defendant and Solicitor General Charters and Gaillard for the state. New trial was refused and the case will go to the Supreme court.

Herchel and Jasper Clements had racket with Clarence Tolbert, who carries the lower Gainesville mail, down on the road near Squirrel creek, last Monday. Jasper knocked Clarence down. Then they went at it in good earnest. Will Ward holding Jasper's brother to keep him out of it. A Mr. Duckery, of Gaddistown, a passenger, got alarmed and took to the woods. After Jasper went to Gainesville he got locked up and fined. Whiskey was the cause of the trouble.

The rural mail route No. 2, starting from Murrayville, is a big convenience to many of the citizens of Hall, but it is a drawback to every one residing in Lumpkin county who received their mail at New Bridge. This office has been discontinued and many of its patrons of Lumpkin are as far off from the rural route as three miles, and they have been cut from the outside world. Let them petition the department to re-establish New Bridge post office so they can get their mail. The people in this county want some conveniences as well as those residing in others, but so far they have been unable to get them.

Last Saturday night Alice Welchel paid Henry Elrod, both colored, a visit to his lonely cottage out in the edge of town. City Marshal Walker arrested both and brought them in. The woman made bond and Henry went to the lockup until the afternoon, when Squire McGuire was called out to make their souls best as one. As soon as the wedding was over the crowd of little boys present, went to see the $1,000 horse which arrived while the ceremony was being performed. It was hard to tell which attracted the most attention, the horse or the wedding. On Monday Henry and his wife were fined $2 and cost, each, by Mayor Baker.

WANTED.—A car load of mules and horses. J. M. BROOKSHER. Dahlonega, Ga.

The water courses are very low and but one or two saw mills are running in the county.

Have you registered? If not do so and get ready for the city election, and be able to go to the polls with your hands untied.

Rev. Mr. Blackburn requests us to state that there will be preaching at Siloam church on the first Saturday and Sunday in next month. Rev. W. T. Dowdy will be there.

Applications for the Cross of Honor are being received every day now nearly and the ladies are placing these old gray haired ex-Confederate veterans by presenting each with one of their badges.

Mr. Wash Christy tells us that there is at least five hundred bushels more corn made in Crumby's district this year than last. Only a few persons make corn in that district and it is a very easy matter to calculate.

Mr. E. W. Parrish left this county last Saturday for Texas, where he goes to spend the rest of his days with one of his sons. He is an old ex-Confederate soldier and the ladies presented the aged man with a Cross of Honor before he left.

Mr. L. D. Cain, of Flowery Branch, while in town last week, showed us one of the largest crystallized quartz we ever looked at. It was nearly as big as a man's wrist and was about five inches long and a perfect beauty. He found it on his farm.

Many fine porkers are being slaughtered in this section now. A merchant told us the other day that he had been paying one hundred dollars a month for meat bought in Gainesville, until the last two he had purchased it here from the farmers. Such as this keeps the money at home. People could raise enough meat in the county to supply it, same as they do syrup, if they would. All quit making whiskey and go to raising hogs.

Messrs. W. C. Duckett and D. M. Caldwell, formerly of this county, but now of Pickens, came in last Friday on a visit to their relatives and to drop a dollar in THE NUGGET's slot. Both differ with us politically but Mr. Caldwell says that THE NUGGET is the only paper he takes or wants. Both have our thanks for their continued patronage. We will try to please them by giving the news, and sensible men like them are not going to fall out with us about our views.

Northern capitalists have written to parties here, no longer than last week, very favorably concerning a railroad to this place, and if our citizens want one soon, all they have to do is to secure the franchise from Dahlonega to some point on the railroad. They say by having local parties interested in the road that not near so many damage suits will occur. A move is on foot now to get a steam line for Dahlonega connected with Mr. Bakwin's Athens route. If not the proposition from here to Roswell will be taken up.

Last Friday Mr. John Jenkins came in town and soon had a constable out on his farm levying on some corn and fodder belonging to W. E. Satterfield, who was fixing to leave without paying the owner of the land what was due him. Satterfield came in and scheduled, but it didn't stop the bailiff in the progress of his work. The corn was brought to town and advertised to be sold in a few days. That is all except three bushels and a peck which they couldn't get on the wagon. This was mated up in the crib. When Constable Walker sent after the corn it was gone. He went to see Satterfield but he denied having it yet when the officer started back after a warrant Satterfield went and showed him where it was all sickled and suckled, hid under some shucks.

Miss Sallie Cochran was up from Gainesville this week.

Wanted, at once, six (6) or (8) turkeys. COLLEGE DORMITORY.

Good pork is bringing 7 cents per pound here, and corn 50 cents per bushel.

Rev. Mr. Marchman is now absent attending the North Georgia Conference at Newnan.

Rev. Anzi Stargel, a former citizen of Lumpkin, died in White county on Thursday of last week of consumption.

This is Dr. Howard's birthday. He was born in North Carolina and came to Georgia in 1848, and today is 84 years old.

Collector Ware and Marshal Grizzle destroyed a half illicit distillery up in the Clark settlement, this county, last week. The operator was absent.

On Friday afternoon, while the two college football teams here were practicing, Mr. W. A. Simms, of Winder, fell on his left shoulder and broke his collar bone.

Mr. Wylie Carroll, the clever clerk in the postoffice here, found a pocketbook on the streets the other day, and by his honest efforts soon had it in the hands of its owner.

The price of THE NUGGET is $1.00. We do not club with any papers at a reduced rate for our paper. We give our readers the benefit of the reduction the other paper allows.

WANTED.—To buy timber and timber lands near the Etowah river and its tributaries, in Lumpkin county.

O. J. LILLY, Attorney, oct 27 Et Dahlonega, Ga.

Mr. Arch Anderson has resigned as postmaster at Wild, Ga., and notice has been given by the department that the office will be discontinued in a few days now, if no one applies for the it.

About $450 worth of goods yet to sell at cost. Come and examine and get prices and you will buy. If you want them on time. See notice. Most anything usually kept in a good store.

M. J. WILLIAMS.

Mr. A. F. Stow has purchased a farm within two miles of Gainesville and will move to it about Christmas. He has some valuable town property for sale here. Mr. Stow has been with us a long time and we hate to lose his citizenship.

No doubt the correspondent whose letter appears on the first page, was just trying us, to see whether we would publish his letter. We treat all people alike on public matters. Friend or foe, can get justice through THE NUGGET.

Mr. Henry King killed two fine nine-month-old porkers one day last week. One weighed 240 pounds and the other was nearly as large. This does pretty well for town hogs, and is more profitable than raising dogs.

Mr. John Sargent has been crippled with inflammatory rheumatism some time. It settled in one ankle, which burst, but has recovered so he can get out from home a little on crutches. Mr. Sargent has an idea of making the race for some county office—may be tax collector.

We are indebted to Mr. Robert London for a lot of his fine turnips last week, as a sample of what he produces on his splendid farm. Mr. London is a good farmer. He raises every thing that is produced in this country, is one reason why he is prospering. A short crop of any farm product does not discourage him in the least.

Mr. Drew Hollifield and his several friends, of Danwoody, Ga., passed through Dahlonega one day last week from their hunting trip across the Blue Ridge. They had a nice lot of squirrels salted up to carry home, which were left out in the wagon the night they stayed here and some one stole the lot of them. So the thieves are not all gone from Dahlonega yet, but take advantage of the darkness of the nights.

Mrs. Sue Haralson, of Atlanta, visited our city last Tuesday.

Miss Lela Sullins, daughter of Mr. John Sullins, died in Wahoo district last Monday.

Dr. Scroggs, who used to live in Lumpkin county, died in Hall a few days ago of consumption. The Doctor had been preaching for a few years.

The organist of the Methodist Sunday School, requests that those having "Young Peoples Hymnal No. 2," will please return them by Sunday morning next.

Mr. Bainbridge carried the broken pieces of the Consolidated Co.'s electric plant to Atlanta and stayed till the work was done, and it won't be long now until the plant will be in working order again.

Running short of water down at Boll Shoals, near Atlanta, Mr. A. E. Triple, of that city, came up to Dahlonega this week and made arrangements for a portion of the water of the Gorge dam to be turned off.

Mr. J. E. Blackburn has gone to Dawsonville to do some painting. He is a good painter, and a good honest, christian gentleman, who has done a great deal of good for the church that some one else often got credit for.

Mr. Jack Norrell, residing in Auraria district, is having much trouble. Three of his family are now down with typhoid fever. One of his children has had it, but is about well. His eldest girl has been at the point of death for several days.

Those boys who broke some of the lamps at the Crown Mountain plant the other day, will not likely be guilty of such a thing again. They had to pay for them and received a talk from Capt. Williams which will never be forgotten by them if they were to live to be ninety-nine years old.

There being no lights at the M. E. church last Sunday night, owing to the crippled condition of the electric plant, Mr. Marchman, the pastor, preached his farewell sermon at the Baptist church, where he was listened to with much interest. Mr. Marchman, since being here, has discharged his duties in a quiet manner, hurting no one's feelings in the least, causing the people to love and respect him, and when he takes his final departure he will carry with him the best wishes of Dahlonega.

Rural routes are just as important in this county as the raising of cotton, because they bring thousands of dollars into the country. The four proposed routes in Lumpkin would be worth $2,880 to her citizens. So let every citizen, of any influence, go to work and use the proper methods to have these routes established. See or write to Congressman Bell and urge him not to let a few "one-horse" postmasters and mail contractors keep us out of this money. Mr. Bell writes that he is going to Washington soon and will take up this matter, and it will be a good plan to furnish him with information sufficient to show what kind of schemes have been used by some of those who oppose them.

There are three different companies wanting to complete the railroad from Gainesville now if they had a chance, but things are in such a shape that nothing can be done in reference to this line just now. Col. W. P. Price of Dahlonega, first started it some years ago. Then not long since, he turned it over to Gen. Warner, president of the Gainesville & Dahlonega Electric Railway Co., on certain conditions. After spending some money on it, the General also suspended work. Col. Price wants his road so he can have it completed, but Gen. Warner, so we understand, claims $15,000, and won't give it up till this is paid. The Colonel claims that the old gentleman has not complied with his contract and has commenced suit. So it may be a year or more before it is known who does really control the road.

Don't take every person who pretends to be your friend one till you test them.

Messrs. Geo. Moore and Charlie Hope, of Gainesville, were in Dahlonega a few hours last Saturday.

Mr. James Wheelchel, residing near New Bridge, has sold out and is going to move to Forsyth county.

Miss Annie, daughter of Mr. James Trammell, of Auraria, and Mr. Robert Chambers were married recently.

A book agent sold 875 pounds of books in Dahlonega in little over a week, and yet some people complain of hard times.

The game of football at Barnesville last Monday between Dahlonega and Gordon, resulted in favor of the latter by 41 to 0.

Mr. Joe Walker was wedded to Miss Mattie Adams, a daughter of Mr. James Adams, last Friday evening by Squire G. H. McGuire.

Those wishing legal sales advertised for January in this county, will please send them in a week earlier, as we will publish no paper on Christmas week.

The parties who stole the meal and peas from the old lady over on the river the other day while she was away from home, had better return it before a warrant is issued for them.

As Mr. J. M. Cochran, of Gaddistown, passed through Dahlonega last Tuesday with 900 pounds of pork for the Gainesville market, he dropped a dollar in Tine Nugent's slot and told us to keep it coming.

Beginning the first of next month the mail on the lower route to Gainesville, will leave at 6:30 a. m., and arrive at 6:30 p. m. This is the schedule, but it can't be made on time in the rainy season by the way of Murrayville.

Mr. B. R. Meaders and his son, Frank, returned from across the Blue Ridge last Saturday night with a lot of nice mules, bought for the lower market. They were carried off by Mr. Frank Meaders on Monday.

Mr. Wylie Carroll, clerk in the postoffice here, will be there no longer than the first of January. Wylie handles mail matter very rapidly and correct and his presence there will be missed very much. He is straight forward, honest and it will be no trouble for him to get a job.

Just think of a member of the church getting five persons drunk on one Sunday in order to have them sign a counter petition against the establishment of a rural route! Also telling them that mail boxes would cost $3 apiece! Where's such a man's religion? And at the same time being a mail contractor! All these things will be investigated later on by the department.

Capt. Williams has sent six half gallon bottles of water off to be analyzed by the government, one each from Mr. B. R. Meaders' well, two college wells, spring on the ball ground, well on drill ground and old Public Spring, now owned by Mr. J. F. Moore. There is no one sick who uses water from any of these wells and springs but the Captain, just has a curiosity to know if they are entirely pure.

Mr. G. H. McGuire of Dahlonega, has just completed a model for a cotton chopper, which looks to us as being a great invention, and one which will fill a long felt want. It is a cotton chopper and a disk plow combined, which is fixed to do double work with just about as much ease as a plow. It is interesting to see, and looks very simple now, but Mr. McGuire has been working on it for the last two years. He says he has lost many hours sleep studying how he would consolidate the two. A description of this chopper will not be given now, as the inventor will apply for a patent, and we don't want any one to get ahead of him, as we wish him to be rewarded for what he has done.

Mining Notes.

Mr. Bev. Brooksher is taking out ore again from the vein he recently discovered on the Barlow property.

The Packard pump, boiler and pipe line have been bought by Messrs. Sovey & Buell and put on the Valley Hill Mining Company's property, preparatory to beginning work.

Work has been suspended at the Ozle, on the Barlow property, until the directors meet and arrange a cheaper power than the steam that has been in use for some time costing sixteen dollars a day, being too expensive, matters not how rich the mine is, especially when either electric or water power can be had at a cost of only about $3.00. The wood is getting scarcer every day and later on when wet weather sets in fuel cannot be had on account of the bad, muddy roads.

At a recent meeting of some of the stockholders of Crown Mountain Co., in Gainesville, a committee was appointed to see if it could sell a portion of the company's water power in Lumpkin county to liquidate the outstanding indebtedness against said company. This committee has thirty days in which to do its work. In the meantime all the company's property is under the control of Mr. J. F. Moore, of Dahlonega, who has Mr. Wm. Rice, a trusty gentleman, on the property every day to keep the machinery in good trim and to see that nothing goes wrong.

We hope that every man or company beginning mining operations in this county hereafter will go at it in a business like manner, just like they were conducting any other enterprise, and by all means handle other peoples' money in an economical and judicious manner. By so doing it will not only benefit the investors but the entire country. Otherwise it will be a drawback to both. We do not wish our county injured by wild schemers again, and if we see any thing of the kind going on we will expose it the moment we do so as to prevent any more drawbacks to Lumpkin county. Look at the Consolidated and Standard Companies. Had the first management been as careful and economical as the present, both would have been in good shape today and all the stockholders would have been rejoicing instead of full of discouragement. Thousands of dollars they invested have been thrown away instead of being spent for development work and they are so disgusted that they are afraid to put in any more, being really needed and could be spent to a good advantage.

Notice.

We will sell at our residence, on the 20th of December, to the highest bidder for cash, the following property, to-wit:

200 bushels of corn; 1500 bundles of fodder; shucks and hay; 2 milch cows—one with young calf. One 2-year old steer; 4 head of hogs; 2 wagons; 1 buggy and harness; farming tools; household and kitchen furniture. And other things too numerous to mention. Sale will begin at 10 o'clock. Terms cash.

This 20th of November, 1905,

Respectfully,

HUTCHESON BROS.

Meaders' Low Prices.

We will sell any article of merchandise in our store at as low a price as any other merchant named, so long as it is not below actual first cost, which is very seldom the case.

Our regular prices, however, are often as low as many special cut prices, and some times even lower.

We guarantee everything we sell to be as represented, full weight and measure. We cheerfully correct any errors we may make (we suppose everybody makes one now and then.)

We keep medium and high priced merchandise and in all grades and will try to put the price as low as possible.

Call and we will welcome you gladly.

B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

We understand that in about two weeks the famous Ducktown smoke case will come up before the U. S. Supreme court, and many predict that the result of the suit will cause the mines at Ducktown to shut down. While we believe the noxious gases and smoke from these mines have done great injury to timber, fruit and crops in Georgia, yet we doubt the propriety of pressing this suit until early spring of next year. We understand that about three thousand heads of families are dependent on these mines for support of themselves and families and that over one-half of these people of Georgians. Should all these people be thrown out of a job in this time of the year, in dead of winter, it will be a calamity to them and cause great suffering. There ought to be a way to adjust this matter so that all persons could be remunerated for the damages and the mines run on, and we believe it could be done if approached in a proper spirit on both sides.—Blue Ridge Post.

Mr. Mart Duckett tells us that a certain man in his community, whose name he did not tell us, returned home the other day with a new set of teeth which pleased the whole family so well that he undertook to sleep with them in his mouth that night. In a few hours after he and his wife retired the good lady was aroused from her dreams by a struggling noise like that made by a hog after it is stabbed in the throat. An investigation soon proved that her husband had partly swallowed his teeth, which made his snoring have a very unpleasant noise, causing the dog to howl and the cats to mew. This soon ceased, however, it was not long till his wife had them fished out of his throat with her finger, and when he went to sleep again there was no more disturbance.

A Sad Story.

"The average printer is usually a fair intelligent fellow," remarked the thin gentleman, "but one of them is responsible for my not having gained a reputation equal to that of Horace Greely or Charles A. Dana in the newspaper business. The first blow he gave me was when I made a statement in the local columns of the country paper I was on that Mrs. Soandoo's little spaniel was reported to have 'rabies' and he set the last word up 'rabies.' I could have stood that, but one day I grew a little literary in an article and ran in that quotation from Marlowe's 'Faust':
"I 'tis the face that launched a thousand ships
And burned the topless towers of Ilium"
"Well, when that came out in the shape of 'I 'tis the face that launched a thousand ships?' I handed in my resignation and went off to a business college."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

who is a citizen of the town. People who have little children to be educated cannot find a better location. Rents are cheap and the cost of living moderate. Why not move here to give your children a nine months school term instead of having a short term of two or three months as you now have? The children who complete the course in the graded school enter college herewithout additional examination.
If cheap living, low rates and a nine months school absolutely free for your children is not an attractive proposition, where will you find one?
